

All Saints' BBQ and the Kingdom of God

All through the search process I heard people tell me about BBQ at All Saints'. "Just wait until you see BBQ" people would say to me. "You won't believe how it all comes together" others would say. It turns out they were right.

I witnessed firsthand that BBQ here at All Saints' is a driving force for building community and bringing people together for a common good. It began the Sunday before when I got to see how the mystical BBQ sauce was made. First lesson, do not stand down wind when the ingredients were being poured. Second lesson, making 70 gallons of sauce is an all afternoon affair with lots of time to socialize with wonderful people.

When it comes to BBQ on this scale so many pieces have to merge together in just the right order. Timing is everything. The wood has to be delivered a couple of weeks before so that it is ready to be turned into charcoal. The pork butts are turned on the hour and watched over all night so that they can be run through a mechanical grinder and turned into sandwiches, plate lunches, and sold as packages by the pound. Then there are those given the task of creating mountains of coleslaw on an assembly line that would make Henry Ford jealous. At the same a group is bottling BBQ sauce while still another group is pouring the sauce into smaller single serving plastic cups. There are smiles on everyone's faces. Laughter is a constant. People have been doing the same job for decades. This is really fun for them to do!

As an outsider, what I noticed first is that this whole process is a labor of love. People of All Saint's do not see this only as a fund raiser. They see BBQ as a reason for old friends to reconnect. There are even people who are not members of All Saints' who come and work BBQ just to be with their friends. This is exactly how the Body of Christ is supposed to work. There are many parts but only one Body. So many people willingly give of their time and talent to bring to life an event that the entire town of Morristown looks forward to twice a year.

I am now a believer in the power of BBQ to make a difference in people's lives. I can't wait for the next one in October. I'll be back in the pit at night. I'll smell like smoke for days. And I will take comfort in knowing the Kingdom of God draws just a little bit closer for having done so.

God's Peace,

Mark+

THE SHOE MAN

My alarm went off. It was Sunday again.
 was sleepy and tired. My one day to sleep in.
 But the guilt I would feel the rest of the day would have been too much so I'd go and I'd pray.

I showered and shaved. I adjusted my tie.
 I got there and sat in a pew just in time.
 Bowing my head in prayer as I closed my eyes.
 I saw the shoe of the man next to me touching my own. I sighed.
 With plenty of room on either side, I thought, "Why must our soles touch?"
 It bothered me, his shoe touching mine but it didn't bother him much.
 A prayer began: "Our Father"...I thought, "This man with the shoes has no pride.
 They're dusty, worn, and scratched and even worse, there are holes on the side!
 "Thank You for blessings," the prayer went on. The shoe man said a quiet "Amen."
 I tried to focus on the prayer but my thoughts were on his shoes again.
 Aren't we supposed to look our best when walking through that door?
 "Well, this certainly isn't it," I thought, glancing toward the floor.

Then the prayer was ended and the songs of praise began.
 The shoe man was certainly loud, sounding proud as he sang.
 His voice lifted the rafters his hands were raised high.
 The Lord could surely hear the shoe man's voice from the sky.
 It was time for the offering and what I threw in was steep.
 I watched as the shoe man reached into his pockets so deep.
 I saw what was pulled out what the shoe man put in.
 Then I heard a soft "clink" as when silver hits tin.

The sermon really bored me to tears, and that's no lie!
 It was the same for the shoe man for tears fell from his eyes.
 At the end of the service, the custom here,
 we must greet new visitors and show them good cheer.
 But I felt moved somehow and wanted to meet the shoe man.
 So, after the closing prayer I reached over and shook his hand.
 He was old and his skin was dark and his hair was truly a mess,
 But I thanked him for coming for being our guest.

He said, "My name's' Charlie I'm glad to meet you, my friend."
 There were tears in his eyes but he had a large, wide grin
 "Let me explain," he said, wiping tears from his eyes.
 "I've been coming here for months and you're the first to say 'Hi.'"
 "I know that my appearance is not like all the rest,
 but I really do try to always look my best.
 I always clean and polish my shoes before my very long walk.
 But by the time I get here they're dirty and dusty, like chalk."

My heart filled with pain and I swallowed to hide my tears,
 As he continued to apologize for daring to sit so near.
 "When I get here I know I must look a sight.
 But I thought if I could touch you then maybe our souls might unite."
 I was silent for a moment knowing whatever was said would pale in comparison.
 I spoke from my heart, not my head. "Oh, you've touched me," I said,
 "And taught me, in part; That the best of any man
 Is what is found in his heart."
 The rest, I thought, this shoe man will never know.
 Like just how thankful I really am that his dirty old shoe touched my soul.

Harp Recital

Sunday, June 11
3:00pm

All Saints' Episcopal Church

Kari Novilla currently studies with Willam Lovelace (past president of the American Harp Society) and Elzbieta Szmyt (Jacobs School of Music, Indiana University-Bloomington). She was graduated this past May with both her high school diploma and an associate degree from Walters State Community College, summa cum laude. As a Jacobs Scholar and Dean's Scholar she will be double majoring in Harp Performance and Cytotechnology this fall at Indiana University-Bloomington with a full scholarship. Among other awards, she is the recipient of The Rose Center's Bravo Award, Knoxville Choral Society Young Classical Musician's Award, and the Knoxville Tuesday Morning Musical Club Award. She is also a recipient of the Ingle's Markets Academic Scholarship Award.

She is the principal harpist of both the Knoxville Symphony Youth Orchestra and Oak Ridge Community Philharmonia. She has also served as the principal harpist for the University of Tennessee Symphony and Chamber Orchestras, Carson-Newman University Chamber Orchestra and Wind Symphony, and has performed with the Johnson City Symphony. In 2015 she won the Knoxville Symphony Youth Orchestra Concerto Competition and performed with the orchestra in the Tennessee Theatre. As a result of this performance, she performed, by request, the same concerto with the Knoxville Symphony Orchestra. Last year, she was awarded a full scholarship to attend the month-long Idyllwild (California) Chamberfest Orchestra. Ms. Novilla plans to make music a lifetime career.

This concert is free and open to the public.

Adult Christian Formation has been experiencing a delightful renaissance in offering opportunities for spiritual growth and development. Bible Study, Sunday morning Adult Forum, and Wednesday night programming comprise the three major areas in which this part of the Body seeks to fulfill the mission of our parish. We are currently using Rob Bell's "Nooma" series as a point of departure for lively discussion on Sundays and often at AGAPE.

Agape is the title for Wednesday night programs at All Saints'. It has the tag line of "feed and be fed" as a point of reference for the fact that we often fill bags for Food on Foot or have some other outreach program. We also are fed by having dinner as well as having "soul-and-mind food" with programs and prayers (Compline) that are consistent with our mission statement. It has been suggested that we make efforts to increase the offerings on Wednesday nights for children and youth. Parish Life cooking teams prepare the meals (each team cooks about once every two months), Outreach handles the Food on Foot program twice a month and provides a speaker once a month; Adult Christian Formation gives the presentations all the other nights in the month, leads the worship, handles the video display (advertising) and functions as the overall coordinator.

Any interested in helping to guide, organize, present, teach, mentor, or pray is welcome to join our merry band. Please let me know if you are interested!

Henry Selby, Liaison for Adult Christian Formation

New Foyer Gathering

It's time to reshuffle our Foyers groups again!!! Please come and join us on June 3 from 6-8pm in the parish hall for an evening of food, fellowship, and fun. Adult couples and singles are all welcome. Come and try out Foyer, which is a great way to get to know your fellow parishioners at All Saints' by sharing a meal and conversation. Bring a hearty appetizer and a smile to share as we begin a new season of Foyer fun!!! We're looking forward to seeing you!!!! If you have any questions, call Louise Joyce at 865-674-7572.

PARISH LIFE COMMITTEE

Thank you to everyone who made the BBQ such a success, especially our fearless leaders, Dan Dickens & BobVick!

Congratulations to all our graduates.

It's time to reshuffle our Foyers again! Come join us on June 3 from 6-8pm in the parish hall for an evening of food, fellowship, and fun. Adult couples and singles are all welcome. We will be forming groups of 6 so we can invite others to join our group for the dinners at our houses. Come and try foyer. It's a great way to get to know your fellow parishioners by sharing a meal and conversation. Bring a hearty appetizer and a smile to share as we begin a new season of foyers! Also, Louise Joyce is asking anyone who would like to help her with the organization of foyers to call her. If you have any questions, or want to help contact Louise Joyce at 865-674-7572.

ECW continues BINGO and have a retreat planned for June 17 at Jim and Susan Fuhr's house. Watch your email and the bulletin for details.

Wise Men meeting date is still being coordinated and will be announced soon.

We are looking for someone to head up and restart scrapbooking. Please contact me if interested.

Thank you to everyone who makes Parish Life great!

Bingo will be June 14th and it is also Flag Day. It is amazing that one of the persons from the Morristown Housing Authority said they smelled the smoke from the pit when we were cooking BBQ for many years. However, the first time they had any BBQ was when we served it during our Bingo lunch. BBQ is the all-time favorite meal for the folks from Morristown Housing Authority. We await the marching orders from the "Bingo Boss" (all hail Marylou) as to what to bring for the June meal. Bingo starts at noon but if you want to help you need to get there by 11am.

Food on Foot – June 7th and June 21st are the Wednesdays for filling the bags for FOF. This continues to be a strong ministry for All Saints'. June 24th is the Saturday that All Saints assists in handing out the bags. If you have not done, this give it some thought. It's a good thing to see the other end of this ministry. Be at Food on Foot by 11 am as there is a short prayer before the actual handing out of the bags begins.

At this time the loose offering totals for CEASE are not know. They were the group designated for the loose offering in April. As soon as the total is known it will be in a Sunday bulletin and the July newsletter. It was announced in the May newsletter that Helping Hands Clinic would be the Outreach group to receive the loose offering in May. That was not the case. Outreach changed this for a couple of reasons. One was the call by the diocese to support the Episcopal diocese of Kondoia in Tanzania. They are in the midst of a severe drought so food is in short supply. The second reason is we have changed the order in how we operate. After discussing this in committee Outreach decided to have the speaker first, the last Wednesday of the month, and then the loose offering to follow on the second Sunday of the following month. So Helping Hands Clinic will be the June recipient of the loose offering with Jeff Armstrong and or Celeste Paula being the speakers for them on May 31st.

Here is the schedule through August for the designated groups and speaker dates.

Helping Hands Clinic – Speakers May 31st and loose offering on June 11th.

Boy Scout Troop 197 – Speaker date June 28th and loose offering on July 9th.

All Saints Episcopal School – Speaker date July 26th and loose offering August 13th.

Other organizations brought up for consideration are: The Rose Center, Kingswood Home for Children, Camp Billy Johnson and Narrow Ridge Earth Literacy Center. For those who are not familiar with this Outreach effort the loose offering from the second Sunday of the month goes to Outreach. The Outreach committee designates the recipient for each month.

You have got to hand it to the students at Hidden Treasures their gardens down by the BBQ pit are looking great. Thanks to all those who brought in planters and pots for them to redecorate and sell as a fund raiser to support their gardening efforts.

The Outreach Committee: Cookie Larkin, Ginger Goolsby, John Hutchins, Sue Justis, Jackie Fleming, Louise Dyer and Larry McGowan.

Spring bbq ... in the beginning...

Welcome to All Saints BBQ
 Thank you for the opportunity to be at a BBQ. I trust you are making that work that little fun
 Please share your meal with friends, family, and strangers
 May you taste the love that went into it
 May the Holy Spirit
 fill you with joy to the point that it bursts out and sprays all over town.
 Love,
 The BBQ
 Committee
 Spring 2017

Over & done ↓

Thank you each and every one for working to make our Spring BBQ a success!
 Hope you had some fun along the way!!!!

The youth had a busy April and start to May. Since the last newsletter, we've packed and hunted eggs (2x), enjoyed ice cream on Sundae Sunday, celebrated our 2017 Graduates, and had 2 successful fundraisers with the doggie bone sale and the bake sale during the BBQ. On June 25th we will have a river float on the Nolichucky with the whole parish invited.

Thank you to the All Saints' parish family for the awesome support and delicious baked goods.

Sam Neill

RETURN SERVICE REQUESTED

Our scout troop is alive and well! Troop 197, an historic troop founded by Doc Rooney many years ago, had declined and was ready to cease operation. With the official charter set to expire in a matter of weeks, several members of our parish made a heroic effort to revive and restore this important program for boys ages 11-17. We now have six highly active boys and a goal to have twelve by the opening of school in the fall. Last May the troop held its first Court of Honor in over two years, awarding the first rank ("Scout") to all six boys! They have already attended a camp out with another troop, plan on competing in the Cherokee District Camporee, and will all go to Camp Buck Toms (Great Smoky Mountain Council Camp) in July. Many members of the parish have made this possible through generous contributions. Our thanks knows no bounds!

Henry Selby
