August 2018

Back to School - 2018

I'm old enough to remember when the summer break for school went from Memorial Day in late May to the Tuesday after Labor Day in September. Back then June, July, and August inclusive, were the real months of summer. Though it would seem that the school calendar has continued to evolve and those changes have not always been for the best.

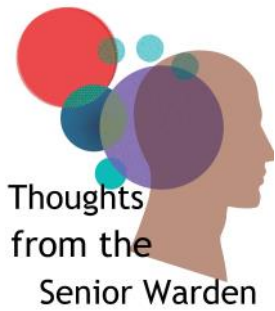

Nowadays the first week of August is associated with the beginning of a new school year. I'm sure there are all kinds of reasons and explanations that have been offered to justify taking away a third of the traditional summer. I'm just not so sure that I agree with them. Nonetheless, teachers in Hamblen County are returning to the classroom this week in preparation for the students who will soon follow.

The start of a new school year usually brings with it the hope of better things to follow. A new backpack filled with school supplies is a game changer for a child who comes from a family with modest means. New school clothes are another indicator that this year will be different from last year. A new pair of shoes to replace the ones that have been outgrown and worn out are another indicator of a new school year.

Last year's pants were "high waters" by the end of the year and as such they were transformed into cutoffs for the summer. Taking into account the extra growth spurt that took place over the summer, a new pair of pants are at least 2 inches or more longer than they were last year will be used this year. The change in said growth is duly noted by the measuring marks and dates found in doorways of homes all over.

It's a new school year and whatever happened last year now stays in the past. The hope that anything and everything is possible this year is the driving force behind our eternal optimism. Such a view of the world is grounded in our Christian understanding of what it means to be a people who are redeemed. We try our best. Sometimes we come up short and we fall down. So then we get back up, dust ourselves off, and we try again.

There is a lesson in this for all of us. Each of us have been redeemed by the Blood of Christ. All of us will fall short of where we wanted to be in life. When that happens we need to remind ourselves it is never too late to go back to school and start again.

Are You Feeling Guilty?

I have been to a lot of seminars in my life and have heard many times that if one person has a question or a feeling, that probably others in the audience also have that question or feeling. Well, lately I have been feeling guilty. Therefore, based on my seminars, I would imagine that at least one other person is in the parish also feels guilt from time to time. I feel guilty when I have to miss a meeting because of a conflict, or when I am short with my wife because I am out of sorts, when I forget a friend or family member's birthday, and especially about the whole "by what we have done, and by what we have left undone" business.

The worst part of feeling guilty to me is that it weighs one down which just leads to more guilt which can easily turn into depression if one does not "snap out of it!" I know that it can definitely beat me down and sap my energy. In Billy Graham's book, The Search for Significance, Dr. Graham points out that Sigmund Freud says that guilt is a result of social restraint. Further that guilt was born in the mind of a child whose parents scolded him or her and was rooted in the child's fear of losing the love of someone significant to him or her. But Dr. Graham also points to Roman's 8.1, where Paul tell us "There is therefore now no condemnation for those who are in Christ Jesus".

So why do we continue to have such feelings as guilt? Dr. Graham further discusses the difference between guilt and conviction. He states that "While guilt is applicable to nonbelievers and originates from Satan, conviction is the privilege of those who believe, and is given by the Holy Spirit. Guilt brings depression and despair, but conviction enables us to realize the beauty of God's forgiveness and to experience His love and power."

So once again, Satan, get thee behind me, and Lord, help me to remember my conviction in You and the words of Paul.

Thanks to all who donated school supplies in July for the children with Food on Foot. With those supplies they are better prepared for the school year.

Speaking of this school year, the Outreach loose offering for August will go to All Saints' Episcopal School. A representative from ASES will be on hand to for a presentation during the August 8th Agape dinner. The Outreach committee will be providing the dinner.

ASES will also have a table set up in the parish hall the second Sunday in August to answer any questions and talk about the school year and the good things that are happening at ASES.

August 8th is also the night to fill the food bags for FOF as is August 22nd. Distribution will be on August 25th at FOF. Carolyn and Bob Jarnigan really appreciate the support All Saints' provides to their ministry of feeding children in need. If you can spare a couple of hours on Saturday the 25th, come to FOF at 11am and lend a hand.

The loose offering for the remainder of 2018 is: September- Oasis, October - MATS, November - CASA and December - Bingo.

Bingo will be on August 8th so be ready for Marylou's call for help.

Thanks again for the school supplies and all the organizations - you the parishioners support.

Volunteers are needed to help weed the beds around the church. The west side was done last week and should be ok for now, however the front bed and Church Street side beds need work. You do not have to sign up or be on any list to weed. Just pick a nice morning and enjoy a nice hour or so playing in the dirt. Let Bob Harmon if you would like to take on an area or bed. We would like to chart a map of the grounds and who would be responsible for what. You can text me at 423-258-1826 or email me at btharmon10@charter.net.

We have plans to paint the exterior doors and railing on the west side of the church in August. If you are interested in helping paint please contact Bob Harmon so we can schedule a work day. We should be able to accomplish this in about 4 hours one Saturday morning.

Attention men of All Saints: If you are interested in attending the Annual Laymen's Conference August 17-19, Lodging is going fast and may have to be off-site. George Upton is planning on going. Please contact Bob Harmon or George if you are interested.

The 2018 youth mission trip to Whitley City, Ky was a wonderful success. We served two families during our mission trip, The Roberts family, Mike and Wanda and the Crabtree family, Sandra.

At the Crabtree home, new laminate flooring was laid and dry wall repairs completed. At the Roberts home, the entire exterior of the home and all the trim was painted. We camped at the Blue Heron Camp Ground within the Daniel Boone National Park. The youth made a lasting impression on the families we served and we are so proud of their service.

Those participating on the mission trip were, Dusty Chandler, Rebecca Chandler, Charlie Neill, Jake Neill, Jamie Givens, Elizabeth Atwood, Megan Cordle, Jaiden Rohe, and Tyler Williamson. We had four chaperons on the trip, Amy Neill, Dustin Chandler, Father Mark and Victor Bailey.

Our mission trip was coordinated by AdventureServe Ministries based out of Louisville, KY. The mission trip theme was Righteousness. We had daily prayer time and evening worship as part of our activities and we learned to develop and grow in righteousness through our service to others. It was a very empowering week and I know we all came away from the experience more bonded to one another and more aware that we can impact our world by following the example of Jesus to serve our brothers and sisters and to be humble servants.

I want to take this opportunity to thank all those that contributed in anyway towards this missions success. We had more than enough tools loaned as well as financial contributions that supported our mission work. This is also a good time to mention that planning will begin immediately for our next mission trip, date to be determined. So please support our youth in our fund raising efforts as the years proceeds and I know the next trip will be even greater. Again a big thank you to our youth for really demonstrating righteous living through service and making lasting bonds with our mission families that will go with us all in life.

The concept of Christian Sunday school actually began as a way to teach poor children how to read and write by using the Bible as the textbook! Sunday school was non-denominational at first, but gradually evolved into the program that many of us knew as children. It is a fascinating history!

Attendance reached a peak in the 1960's and today many people feel that it is doomed, moribund, defunct. Adult education (or "formation") has followed a similar path in the last fifty years. Yet rather than proclaim the death of Christian education, our parish has actively responded by creating (as opposed to "re-creating") programs! Yes, the rector will still offer confirmation and reception classes; yes, we will still have special Christian based offerings at special times during the liturgical year; and yes, we still care about learning how to live in Christ! There is a strong sense within our parish that we are called to share not only our gifts, but ourselves!

The weekly Agape meals are a grand example of how this works. Sometimes we have a designated speaker, sometimes we have great table-talk. The Adult Christian Formation Committee is continuing to seek ways to build relationships and live in the Body of Christ.

Respectfully submitted,
Henry Selby

The Grief Support Group will once again begin September 20 using the book Life after Loss for ANYONE who is dealing with ANY form of Grief.....

Grief can be from not only the loss of a loved one but also from the loss of a marriage – job/ career – home – pet - etc. Time is not a factor as the loss could be recent or years in the past. This group is open to any member of our community or surrounding communities. Meetings will be each Thursday at 6pm until 7:15

The First Grief Support Group will continue to meet once per month using the book Mending the Heart. This group will jointly meet that week with the new members to share comfort & fellowship & light refreshments. The times of these meetings are also 6pm – 7:15pm

Anyone needing to discuss this is welcome to call me – Janis Dixon – 423 748 1516
