

WHY ARE WE SEEING BLUE IN ADVENT?

Advent means “coming or arrival,” and the reason for the season is anticipation and preparation for the birth of the Christ child and His second coming. In the early church, however, it was a time for candidates to prepare for church membership. After the fourth century, it became a time for preparation for Christmas, and penitence was added as a standard for the whole church in the Middle Ages.

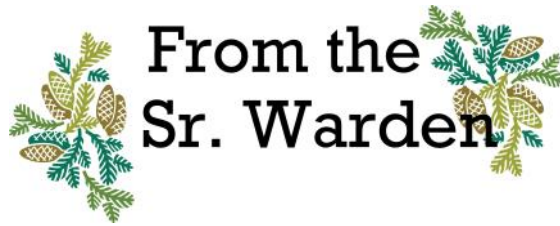

Now many Christian churches are again shifting the emphasis of Advent from a penitential season, such as Lent, to a celebration of hope and anticipation. That in no means takes away from the fact that Advent is also a time of preparation and introspection.

In an effort to again distinguish between Advent and Lent, some denominations have changed the color of Advent to various shades of blue. Some Roman Catholic churches have changed to a blue violet. Although we, as Episcopalians, all grew up with purple and red violet, the early 12th century Black Canon of the Church of the Holy Sepulchre ordered black as the color for Advent! But, blue is by no means new to our church either. Before the 12th century, it was used in the Western Church.

The Sarum Rite was the original basis for the liturgy of the Anglican Book of Common Prayer and where blue was used for the color of Advent. It was often specified that it be an indigo to represent the darkness before the birth. Early art shows church leaders in ornately decorated blue robes. Shades of blue symbolize royalty, the coming of the King, hope, the night sky before the dawn, the sea before creation, and Mary. Remember early dyes were made from nature. Some historians suggest that northern European dyes were made from berries that produced blue while southern Europe was able to make purple dyes.

Tradition puts the rose-colored candle in the Advent wreath---not to symbolize Mary, but to reflect the lessening emphasis on penitence, the nearing of the end of the fast, the pending birth, and the second coming. Rose or pink represents joy. The 3rd Sunday in Advent marks the halfway point, and we are allowed to be excited for the coming event. In the Roman Catholic tradition, it is called Gaudete Sunday, from the Latin for “rejoice.” It takes its name from one of the traditional readings from Philippians which begins, “Rejoice in the Lord always.” (St. Paul’s Episcopal Church, Cambira, CA)

Here at All Saints’ we have chosen the Sarum Blue for our Advent vestments. We have also changed out the old purple Advent candles for new blue ones. Our Sarum Blue vestments have been given in loving memory of Diane Baker.

Our Stewardship Campaign to raise money to operate All Saints' has been moving along well and we hope our pledges total even more than before the pandemic struck. If you haven't sent in a pledge, please do so if you can.

Stewardship is not limited to financial help. We have other needs in the parish as well – volunteers. With many of us staying home so much over the last couple of years, we've grown accustomed to not contributing our help into the many needs of the church.

None of our outreach, none of our in-house programs, none of our missions, none of our social gatherings can happen without more volunteers. As a parish we have to look at what we as individuals are now doing to help and what else we can do to help.

We haven't had a Rally Day to encourage members to sign up for the variety of needs we have, but those needs still exist. These are some:

- Audio and video volunteers for our online services
- Breakfast teams
- Acolytes, lectors, ushers
- Hospitality donations after each service
- Bingo helpers
- Food on Foot volunteers when they resume

If you would like to help but don't know where to start, you can contact any vestry member, drop a short note in the plate during offertory, or just show up at an event!

I wish all a joyous Advent and a Merry Christmas!

These young folks are too old for toys and need clothes. She tells me many never receive any new clothes except what her program has given at Christmas. You may send donations to:

You may call her if you would like to sponsor a young person and shop for them yourself for sizes: 423-312-1783 Look her up her name on Facebook for more details about her program.

Hope we all have a blessed and joyous Holiday!

THREE DIFFERENT KINDS OF CHILI will be offered for supper on December 19 at 6:00 pm in the parish hall following the Festival of Lessons and Carols which begins at 5:00. Three kinds of chili means (1) traditional chili with beans, (2) Pack 197's "Do your Best" chili (no beans, but with angel hair pasta), and (3) vegetarian chili made with textured soy protein. BUT WAIT! THERE'S MORE! We'll have all sorts of cheese and other toppings for the chili, a delicious tossed salad, bread, and festive confections for dessert. Don't miss it! Cub Scout Pack 197 will be providing the for donations only.

"Advent" means "coming". The church season of Advent marks the beginning of a new church year (!) and is a time to prepare us for the birth of Jesus. The Christmas season begins on his birthday, December 25, and lasts for 12 days.

Sunday the 19th is the last Sunday in Advent. Because we will have already celebrated the fourth Sunday, it's OK to start singing some birthday songs! Hope that you will join everyone for our Festival of Lessons and Carols at 5:00 pm on Sunday, December 19, 2021, followed by dinner in the parish hall.

What a difference 6 months can make! Last June Mo. Gigi retired, leaving behind a smoothly running All Saints' Episcopal School, an annual budget with black ink for the first time in years, a staff lamenting her departure and a bit anxious about still another change in headship. Now, six months later, our budget is still in the black, enrollment is up, the faculty are much more comfortable with a somewhat faster pace and scope of instruction, and the School's halls hum with student excitement and engagement. What a difference 6 months can make!

Like last year, all of our classes have met on campus, in person, this year. Unlike last year, we have been able to relax some pandemic protocols, a little. Hence, more hum. COVID-19 has been a continuing challenge and forced more than one change in scheduling or events. Still, the ASES community has risen to its challenge and managed quite nicely.

Grandfriends Day was postponed to November 11 and joined to our Veteran's Day Celebration. The crowd in attendance at both was one of the biggest in years.

The 27th Annual Master's Golf Tournament held in October was a swinging success.

Our Saints' Fund appeal is off and running, hoping to conclude its pledging phase by December 17, the beginning of our Christmas Break. Honoring that pledge can happen anytime before June 30.

Already the 2021 ASES Auction's leadership team is meeting to plan, solicit, and organize, having selected Denim & Diamonds as this year's theme.

We are determined not to let the virus have the last word!

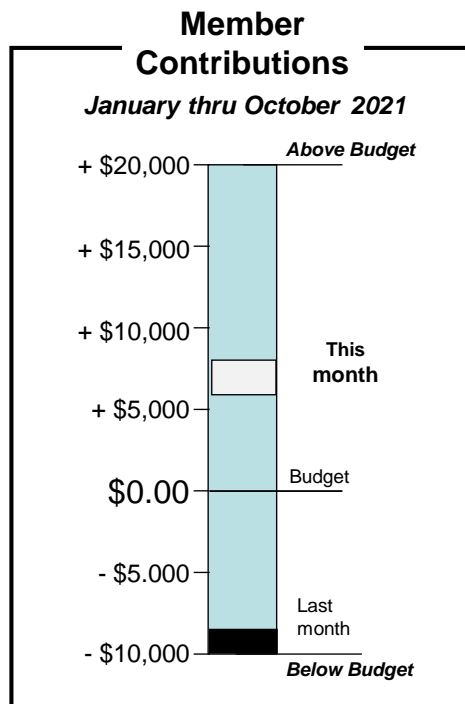

Finally, at November's Board of Trustees' meeting, we began discussing next year's tuition, program expansion, and faculty compensation. Like most small organizations, salaries/personnel are our biggest expense. It's too soon to declare, but with a national teacher shortage and inflation running at a 30 year high, staying at the top of the local education market is going to cost even more dead presidents. Just like the rest of life, quality costs.

The shutdown of many of our church programs during the Covid-19 Pandemic has greatly affected our financial results and has made a meaningful comparison of "Total Income" and "Total Expenses" to the existing "2021 Budget" difficult to understand without a long list of adjustments and exclusions.

For the next period we will only present the "Member Contributions" part of our graph since that data is not skewed by the shutdown of our programs.

Your Vestry thanks you for your support !

Decorating the Church for Christmas

Please reserve some time for this church family tradition!

We need lots of volunteers to get out all the Christmas decorations from the storage above the kitchen and stay and help decorate after the 10:30 church service on SUNDAY THE 19TH.

We will set up:

- and decorate the Christmas tree in the narthex
- the nativity figures in front of the altar
- the pew end torches with candles

Please bring lots of greenery from your yard by NOON ON WEDNESDAY THE 22ND. Evergreen branches, with or without red berries, boxwood and magnolia greenery is preferred. Drop off during office hours to leave greenery in the parish hall or leave outside by the door.

We will also need volunteers to join Rodney Collins on THURSDAY THE 23RD STARTING AT 3:00 PM for final decorating with poinsettias and greenery.

For questions please call Carolyn Dean, or Rodney Collins.

We hope you can join in by bringing greenery, and/or coming on Sunday the 19th, and/or Thursday the 23rd.
