Bio

Paul and Tracey Clines are the Co-Founders and Co-Executive Directors of Everybody's Place of Galveston County which is a non-profit ministry focused on creating supportive housing communities for neighbors experiencing homelessness. Paul is a Methodist pastor and has served in Houston area churches for the past 35+ years. Tracey is a Registered Nurse and has spent the majority of her career in Case Management/Service Coordination. With a passion for serving their community together in ministry, Paul and Tracey are dedicating this next season of their lives to supporting vulnerable populations and advocating for positive change. They are fueled by the fact that 'love your neighbor' still matters. Paul and Tracey are the proud parents of three adult children, they enjoy college football, and when they have the opportunity, enjoy traveling together.
