

On March 07, 2019 Uranus moved into the sign of Taurus where it will stay until April 26, 2026. You are receiving my newsletter when the planet Venus is in conjunction with Uranus in Taurus. Uranus in the planet that is and will be the ruler of the Age of Aquarius for the next 2,000 years. Feels pretty important, doesn't it? Now the planet Saturn is in Aquarius, adding its wisdom, structure, organization and good father energy to aid us in becoming the cosmic adults we need to be. My personal favorite Stoic, Epictetus wrote the following, 300 years before the birth of Christ and the beginning of the Age of Pisces. I believe he was one of the first Aquarian philosophers.

"One cannot pursue one's highest good without, at the same time, promoting the good of others. Our human contract is not with the few people with who our affairs are most immediately intertwined, nor the prominent, rich or well educated, but to all of our human brethren. View yourself as a citizen of a worldwide community and act accordingly."

Some Saturn in Aquarius questions to ponder for the next two years:

- How do I create the structures to honor my unique essence?
- How do become more rational? (integration of emotion and intellect)
- How do I find my like-minded tribe?
- What humanistic cause can I commit to?
- What is my path to individuation and how do I pursue it?
- How do I become more responsible to being more independent?
- What goals do I need to practice living the Aquarian life?

The planet Venus is the ruler of Taurus. She is the goddess of Love representing the powerful energy of desire, which translates as romantic love when filtered through the human mind. In Taurus, the loving energy of Venus has a more sensuous and earthy influence. It works initially through the physical senses to eventually bring awareness, happiness, and joy. Venus rules attachments to others. It rules attractiveness, both the ability to attract and our attraction to others and things. Venus energy is harmonious, which is why people with Venus prominent in their chart are often peacemakers. In Venus, we find a need to be appreciated and to appreciate.

Carl Jung posited that we respond to our environment through four different filters: intellect (air) intuition (fire), emotion (water) and sensation (earth). Venus and Uranus in Taurus are of the earth and therefore rules our filter of sensation. Our body is of the earth and responds to its environment through the senses of hearing, sight, smell, taste, and touch. Spiritually, the sign of Taurus symbolizes the mutual relationship that exists between matter and spirit. Throughout myths there is a god being born of the earth mother. In Christianity... Jesus, the Son of God, was born of an earthly Mother. His God-like spirit manifested through his earthly Mother, Mary. Taurus also represents an idea's need for physical form.

Believing spirit does in fact imbue matter and is expressed through the earth, Uranus will create innovations in cooking, art, and technology. You could have a unique, inventive approach to financial matters in the investment fields as well as banking and real estate. The Uranus hurricane could create disruptions in our financial life in order to promote the freedom that comes from releasing tangible possessions. Uranus is the planet of change and Taurus rules our personal values and finances. We will experience many changes and shifts in these areas in the coming years. No more false, inauthentic values. Uranus in Taurus will set us free from imposed values and meanings. If our foundations are based on external security, Uranus' winds will bring the necessary changes to promote more internal confidence and peace.

This is the time to:

- Take time to cultivate patience
- Be connected to the joys of the living in the present
- Reorient your relationship with money and possessions
- Discover what truly makes you happy and feel fulfilled
- Dream up new ways of increasing your income or earning power
- Concentrate on beautifying and pampering your home, garden, and...self
- Heighten awareness of your personal needs and wants
- Determine awareness of your values
- Enjoy activities that put you in touch with nature and your bodies

Uranus in Taurus will stimulate and illuminate our desire to honor our need to feel connected to our internal sense of self-worth and self-esteem. The divine spark of intuition of Uranus will require us to manifest concrete, earthy solutions to Taurus challenges. Uranus in Taurus knows that to awaken us to a new attitude or a new solution or a new creative technique...we must put in practical, daily commitments and actions.

"The secret of health for both mind and body is not to mourn for the past, nor to worry about the future, but to live the present moment wisely and earnestly." ~Buddha. (It is important to note that Buddha was born under the sign of Taurus, was illuminated under Taurus, and transitioned under Taurus.)
