Especially for you!

These PD Choice sessions are custom designed for new teachers.

Teachers need 9 choice hours for the 2019-2020 school year.

Here's a tip...

Networking and practicing with fellow new teachers about research-based strategies leads to happier teachers delivering strong instruction.

Come join us each month to participate in conference style learning sessions where you can engage in a mini self-care workshop and then choose two of the following:

What to expect?

Core Teaching Find community while engaging in active practice sessions which address instructional and management strategies based on best sellers, Get Better Faster and Teach Like a Champion.

T.E.M Knowledge Gain insight while learning and sharing best practices which increase outcomes for you and your students.

SCS Resources Engage deeply in workshops led by local self-care professionals and gain access and answers from various central office departments.
