

2020 - 2021

TEACHER PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT

the
ORPHEUM

HALLORAN CENTRE
for performing arts & education

- $25 per workshop
- Register for 4 workshops and get the 5th one free!
- Fall 2020 Workshops will be virtual.
- Participants will need a Zoom account
- Links to access the workshop will be emailed 24 hours in advance
- We will announce whether we will meet virtually or in person 60 days prior to each Spring 2021 workshop.
- Questions? Contact stubblefield@orpheum-memphis.com

REGISTER TODAY:
Orpheum-Memphis.com/TeacherPD

Space is limited to ensure personalized attention to all teachers.

Please note that registration priority is given to teachers in the Mid-South region.

TEACHING ARTISTS

Each workshop is focused on certain grade levels, however the instructors can give personalized, real-life recommendations to teachers of all grades.

Drawing Symbols to Acquire & Understand New Vocabulary

Thursday, September 10

Grades 5-8 • 4:30-6:30pm
Facilitated by Jamin Carter

Sept 3-9 Teachers take the self-guided sessions on teachable.com to prepare for the Zoom workshop

Drawing is a powerful and untapped tool for students to build and explore their understanding of new vocabulary. Combined with a use of symbols it's a winning combination to acquire understanding of new and challenging words!

Moving Through Emotions: SEL through Dance Zoom

Tuesday, October 6

Grades K-5 • 4:30-6:30pm
Facilitated by Jessica DiLorenzo

Sept 28 - Oct 5 Teachers take the self-guided sessions on teachable.com to prepare for the Zoom workshop

Our emotional states shift as we move through events in our day. In this session you will not only learn a strategy to help students become aware of feelings and the events that shape them, but you'll also learn how dance can become a tool to manage and express emotions.

Theater in the Social Justice Curriculum

Tuesday, January 26

All Grades • 4:30-7:30pm

Facilitated by Jim Gagne

This workshop explores ways in which a class, or community, can use theatrical works, traditional and devised, to facilitate a more in-depth and impactful conversation on issues of social justice.

Devising Justice: Use the News to Create Theatre

Tuesday, February 9

Grades 4-12 • 4:30-7:30pm

Facilitated by Taylor St. John

Teachers will learn how to facilitate a creative process where students collaborate around an issue of social injustice by analyzing news media sources and imaginatively responding through the creation of original scenes and theatrical tableaux.

Rhetoric with Frederick

Tuesday, March 2

Grades 6-12 • 4:30-7:30pm

Facilitated by Bomani Armah

The goal of this workshop is to learn about the ways Frederick Douglass used writing to change the world and to get students complete a sixteen - bar rhyme that answers four questions about their own experiences and social justice. Thinking, and Communication.