

Great teachers – like you – are critical to our city’s future success.

Are you an early career teacher looking to grow professionally, build a community, and have fun?

Stride is a free program that offers the support you need to thrive as an educator in Memphis! Over the school year, Stride empowers high-performing teachers to grow as leaders and build relationships as they prepare to make a difference in Memphis.

“It was such a great opportunity to expand my social circle and Stride allowed me to experience new outlets in Memphis.”

Megan Weinstein

Push forward in your career by enhancing your leadership skills

Join your other young professionals for events that explore Memphis culture

Connect to all the unique people, places, and things that make Memphis special

Eligible educators in their 1st, 2nd, and 3rd years teaching should register by September 1, 2019

For more information or to sign-up visit newmemphis.org/programs/stride

What to Expect

Build and refine skillsets related to effective communications, feedback, and design-thinking

Benefit from coaching and peer networking

Discover a deeper connection to the city’s vibrancy

Engage socially with a supportive community