When you're editing a page, you can click the layouts tab in the upper right to open other page layouts to select.

Choose the layout option that allows you to organize and display your content best. You can drag any apps you want into the layout sections to design your page.