In the Church Year: Ordinary Time

At the beginning of this mundane season, the lectionary relates two stories of what it means to follow God. In Genesis, God asked Abram to leave his home and follow him to a new land. In the New Testament, Jesus asked Matthew, a tax collector, to follow him. In both readings, following God was an act of faith. But following also involved some pretty regular things – packing up, venturing out, pitching a tent, having a meal with new friends. Following God – responding to a call – meant leaving a known place for another place, a place that will become a new and different home.

Ordinary Time begins with two journeys, and it reminds us – despite all the supernatural hoopla in the weeks previous – that a spiritual journey isn't something odd or particularly heroic. Spiritual journeys might have surprising turns or courageous moments, but they mostly involve familiar things and commonplace activities.

The months after Pentecost invite both believers and seekers to follow God through the everyday landscapes of life. But it isn't a call to the spiritually humdrum. Instead, following in the midst of the ordinary awakens journeyers to the extraordinariness that surrounds us. Pilgrims are invited to find the unusual, the unbelievable, and the wonder in daily life. Pentecost charts a way through the prosaic to discover the poetry of faith. The mundane is transfigured and magical.

For all the drama of Christmas, Easter, and Pentecost Day, the truth of the matter is that God is the God of Ordinary Time. The Presence is with us in all our ordinary, regular, familiar years. The whole of life is a journey. Sometimes we forget to notice. . . . Oh! Ordinary holds such promise! There's really nothing banal in any life. It is all quite extraordinary. – Diana Butler Bass, A Beautiful Year

Entering In

The following thought and image are intended to reflect something in today's service. The Practice is intended to offer one practical way of living these reflections.

For every event in life there are many different angles. When you look at the same event from a wider perspective, your sense of worry and anxiety reduces, and you have greater joy.
--The Dalai Lama

Practice: In a moment of worry or anxiety this week – and you will surely have one – practice the Dalai Lama's exhortation to see another angle on the event and widen your perspective. If you have trouble doing it alone, ask a friend to help you. Find the joy.

Gustave Doré, "Jacob Wrestles the Angel," 1866

The Song of Praise

“I come with joy”

Unison or harmony

The musical notation is for a unison or harmony song. It consists of a treble and a bass staff. The treble staff has a key signature of one flat (Bb) and a common time signature (C). The melody is written in a simple, hymn-like style. The lyrics are written below the treble staff, with five numbered lines of text. The bass staff provides a simple harmonic accompaniment, mostly using chords and single notes.

The Lessons

The Reading

Genesis 32:22-31

A Reading from the Book of Genesis.

The same night Jacob got up and took his two wives, his two maids, and his eleven children, and crossed the ford of the Jabbok. He took them and sent them across the stream, and likewise everything that he had. Jacob was left alone; and a man wrestled with him until daybreak. When the man saw that he did not prevail against Jacob, he struck him on the hip socket; and Jacob's hip was put out of joint as he wrestled with him. Then he said, "Let me go, for the day is breaking." But Jacob said, "I will not let you go, unless you bless me." So he said to him, "What is your name?" And he said, "Jacob." Then the man said, "You shall no longer be called Jacob, but Israel, for you have striven with God and with humans, and have prevailed." Then Jacob asked him, "Please tell me your name." But he said, "Why is it that you ask my name?" And there he blessed him. So Jacob called the place Peniel, saying, "For I have seen God face to face, and yet my life is preserved." The sun rose upon him as he passed Peniel, limping because of his hip.

Reader Hear what the Spirit is saying to God's people.

Assembly Thanks be to God.

Remain seated for the psalm.

The Psalm

Psalm 17

Cantor

Hear my plea of innocence, O Lord; give heed to my cry; *
listen to my prayer, which does not come from lying lips.

Let my vindication come forth from your presence; *
let your eyes be fixed on justice.

Weigh my heart, summon me by night, *
melt me down; you will find no impurity in me.

I give no offense with my mouth as others do; *
I have heeded the words of your lips.

My footsteps hold fast to the ways of your law; *
in your paths my feet shall not stumble.

I call upon you, O God, for you will answer me; *
incline your ear to me and hear my words.

Show me your marvelous loving-kindness, *
O Savior of those who take refuge at your right hand
from those who rise up against them.

But at my vindication I shall see your face; *
when I awake, I shall be satisfied, beholding your likeness.

Response – Gloria Patri

Glory to the Father, and to the Son
And to the Holy Spirit

As it was in the beginning, is now,
and will be forever. Amen.

Please stand as you are able.

The Gospel

Matthew 14: 13-21

Gospeler The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Matthew.
Assembly Glory to you, Lord Christ.

Jesus withdrew in a boat to a deserted place by himself. But when the crowds heard it, they followed him on foot from the towns. When he went ashore, he saw a great crowd; and he had compassion for them and cured their sick. When it was evening, the disciples came to him and said, "This is a deserted place, and the hour is now late; send the crowds away so that they may go into the villages and buy food for themselves." Jesus said to them, "They need not go away; you give them something to eat." They replied, "We have nothing here but five loaves and two fish." And he said, "Bring them here to me." Then he ordered the crowds to sit down on the grass. Taking the five loaves and the two fish, he looked up to heaven, and blessed and broke the loaves, and gave them to the disciples, and the disciples gave them to the crowds. And all ate and were filled; and they took up what was left over of the broken pieces, twelve baskets full. And those who ate were about five thousand men, besides women and children.

Gospeler The Gospel of the Lord.
Assembly Praise to you, Lord Christ.

The Prayers of the People

Written by the Rev. Adam Spencer

Intercessor God be with you.

Assembly And also with you.

Intercessor Let us pray.

Intercessor Christ of Great Compassion, Hope of the World, we bring to you today in our prayers the nations of your earth rent by fearful conflict and afflicted with suffering. We pray for all those lost in and affected by natural disasters: wildfires in Canada and in Europe, earthquakes in Japan, monsoon in Pakistan. We pray also for those working to effect a just and lasting peace in Iran and in Ukraine. Have compassion on those who suffer and give your Holy Spirit unto us and all in positions of authority to heal earth's wounds and end her bitter strife.

Intercessor God in your mercy,

Assembly hear our prayer.

Intercessor Lord of the dark night and the dawning day alike, we gather as your Church to wrestle with you and with the Scriptures; begging, from that struggle, abundant blessing. To you our hearts draw near. Give abundantly the bread of life to those hungry souls who gather in Christian community to worship and to follow you. We pray to you today, in a particular way, for your Church here in the Diocese of Chicago and the Evanston Deanery, especially for Bishop Paula Clark and the people of Saint Mark's Church in Evanston and Greg their rector. We render back to you the love your mercy gives us every day. Take our lives and use them as you will.

Intercessor God in your mercy,

Assembly hear our prayer.

Intervenor

God of Abraham, Isaac and Jacob, of Sarah, Rebekah, Leah and Rachel, you were ever faithful in ancient days and you are ever faithful still. You heard their cries and listened to their prayers and you incline your ear to us and hear our words and our wordless pleas. Show your marvelous loving-kindness to those for whom we pray this day,

The Great Thanksgiving

Enriching Our Worship, Prayer 1

Presider God be with you.
Assembly And also with you.

Presider Lift up your hearts
Assembly We lift them to the Lord.

Presider Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.
Assembly It is right to give our thanks and praise.

Presider It is truly right, and good and joyful, to give thanks to you, all-holy God, source of life and fountain of mercy.

You have filled us and all creation with your blessing and fed us with your constant love; you have redeemed us in Jesus Christ and knit us into one body. Through your Spirit you replenish us and call us to fullness of life.

Therefore, joining with Angels and Archangels and with the faithful of every generation, we lift our voices with all creation as we sing:

Ho - ly, ho - ly, ho - ly Lord, God of pow - er and might, heaven and earth are full of your glo - ry. Ho -
 san - na in the high - est. Ho - san - na in the high - est.
 Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord. Ho -
 san - na in the high - est. Ho - san - na in the high - est.

The Hymnal 1982 #S125, Music: A Community Mass, Richard Proulx (b 1937)

Presider

Blessed are you, gracious God, creator of the universe and giver of life. You formed us in your own image and called us to dwell in your infinite love.

You gave the world into our care that we might be your faithful stewards and show forth your bountiful grace.

But we failed to honor your image in one another and in ourselves; we would not see your goodness in the world around us; and so we violated your creation, abused one another, and rejected your love. Yet you never ceased to care for us, and prepared the way of salvation for all people.

Through Abraham and Sarah you called us into covenant with you. You delivered us from slavery, sustained us in the wilderness, and raised up prophets to renew your promise of salvation. Then, in the fullness of time, you sent your eternal Word, made mortal flesh in Jesus. Born into the human family, and dwelling among us, he revealed your glory. Giving himself freely to death on the cross, he triumphed over evil, opening the way of freedom and life.

On the night before he died for us, Our Savior Jesus Christ took bread, and when he had given thanks to you, he broke it, and gave it to his friends, and said: “Take, eat: This is my Body which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me.”

As supper was ending, Jesus took the cup of wine, and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, and said: “Drink this, all of you: This is my Blood of the new Covenant, which is poured out for you and for all for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me.”

Therefore we proclaim the mystery of faith:

All

Christ has died.

Christ is risen.

Christ will come again.

Presider

Remembering his death and resurrection, we now present to you from your creation this bread and this wine. By your Holy Spirit may they be for us the Body and Blood of our Savior Jesus Christ. Grant that we who share these gifts may be filled with the Holy Spirit and live as Christ's Body in the world. Bring us into the everlasting heritage of your daughters and sons, that with Elisabeth and all your saints, past, present, and yet to come, we may praise your Name for ever.

Through Christ and with Christ and in Christ, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, to you be honor, glory, and praise, for ever and ever.

Assembly Amen.

The Lord's Prayer

Presider And now, as our Savior Christ has taught us, we are bold to say,

All Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy Name, thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven.

Give us this day our daily bread.

And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us.

And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil.

For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory,
for ever and ever. Amen.

The Breaking of the Bread

The presider breaks the consecrated bread. A period of silence is kept.

Presider We break this bread to share in the Body of Christ.

Assembly We who are many are one body, for we all share in the one bread.
