
ST. ELISABETH'S EPISCOPAL CHURCH

The Visitation (Transferred)

June 7, 2026

10:00 AM

Welcome to Saint Elisabeth's. We are delighted to have you with us today.

This faith community invites all persons to all levels of participation, leadership and decision-making within the church regardless of sexual orientation, gender identity, race, ethnicity, age, physical or mental capacity, education, socioeconomic and marital status. We seek to establish meaningful connections with one another through work and play and worship as we strive to understand God's purpose for us in the church and in the world.

Today at St. Elisabeth's

Bishop's Visitation at St. Elisabeth's and the Annual Parish Picnic

The Bishop of Chicago visits Saint Elisabeth's Church today as we celebrate our patronal feast day - the Feast of the Visitation of the Blessed Virgin Mary (when Mary visited her cousin, John the Baptist's mother, our very own Saint Elisabeth). Bishop Clark will be confirming the members of our confirmation class during her visit.

Following the service, we will gather for our parish picnic which will include a catered grill featuring hamburgers, cheeseburgers, brats, hot dogs, and chicken, plus Italian beef. Please sign up on the board in the back hall to bring a salad or desserts, or to help with set up and clean up. In addition, this year's picnic will feature a bounce house and lawn games, along with music.

In the Church Year: Ordinary Time

The Season after Pentecost is not actually a season with a single common focus, but is simply the weeks between the Day of Pentecost and the First Sunday of Advent. It is often called "Ordinary Time." These weeks hold both the slower pace and peaceful quality of summer months and the quicker pace and flurry of activity in the early fall. These are our "ordinary" days, in which we live the Christian faith in our daily lives.

During these weeks, as the liturgical scholar Leonel Mitchell puts it, we celebrate "the time in which we actually live — the period between the Pentecost and the Second Advent." Two thousand years after the first Pentecost, the church still lives in this "in between" time before the fulfillment of time in Christ's second coming. You might also hear these weeks called "the long, green season," referring both to the green color of the vestments and altar hangings for these weeks as well as to the summertime of year in which many of the weeks fall in the northern hemisphere.

After Pentecost we settle into the growing season, nourishing the seeds planted at Easter and putting down roots in our faith. — Daily Prayer for All Seasons

Entering In

The following thought and image are intended to reflect something in today's service. The Practice is intended to offer one practical way of living these reflections.

We would be smart to hear Mary's "Magnificat" in which she subversively says that God "brings down the mighty from their thrones and exalts the lowly" No wonder this courageous woman was chosen to be the mother of the one who told the truth. Jesus must have learned some of it from her. -- Richard Rohr

Practice: Where have you learned to be courageous? Who was your model? How do you model Christ-like courage?

Presider God be with you.

Assembly And also with you.

The Lessons

The Reading

1 Samuel 2:1-10

A Reading from the First Book of Samuel.

Hannah prayed and said,

“My heart exults in the Lord;
my strength is exalted in my God.

There is no Holy One like the Lord, no one besides you;
there is no Rock like our God.

Talk no more so very proudly,
let not arrogance come from your mouth;

for the Lord is a God of knowledge, and by him actions are weighed.

The bows of the mighty are broken,
but the feeble gird on strength.

Those who were full have hired themselves out for bread, but those who were hungry are fat with spoil.

The barren has borne seven,
but she who has many children is forlorn.

The Lord kills and brings to life;
he brings down to Sheol and raises up.

The Lord makes poor and makes rich;
he brings low, he also exalts.

He raises up the poor from the dust;
he lifts the needy from the ash heap,

to make them sit with princes and inherit a seat of honor.

For the pillars of the earth are the Lord's,
and on them he has set the world.

He will guard the feet of his faithful ones,
but the wicked shall be cut off in darkness;
for not by might does one prevail.

The Lord! His adversaries shall be shattered;
the Most High will thunder in heaven.

The Lord will judge the ends of the earth;
he will give strength to his king,
and exalt the power of his anointed.”

Reader Hear what the Spirit is saying to God's people.

Assembly Thanks be to God.

Remain seated for the psalm.

The Psalm

Psalm 113

Hallelujah!

Give praise, you servants of the Lord; *
praise the Name of the Lord.

Let the Name of the Lord be blessed, *
from this time forth for evermore.

From the rising of the sun to its going down *
let the Name of the Lord be praised.

The Lord is high above all nations, *
and his glory above the heavens.

Who is like the Lord our God, who sits enthroned on high * but stoops to behold the heavens and the earth?

He takes up the weak out of the dust *
and lifts up the poor from the ashes.

He sets them with the princes, *
with the princes of his people.

He makes the woman of a childless house *
to be a joyful mother of children.

Choral Response – Gloria Partii

Glory to the Father, and to the Son

As it was in the beginning, is now,
and will be forever. Amen.

The Gospel

Luke 1:39-57

Gospeler The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Luke.
Assembly Glory to you, Lord Christ.

In those days Mary set out and went with haste to a Judean town in the hill country, where she entered the house of Zechariah and greeted Elizabeth.

When Elizabeth heard Mary's greeting, the child leaped in her womb. And Elizabeth was filled with the Holy Spirit and exclaimed with a loud cry, "Blessed are you among women, and blessed is the fruit of your womb. And why has this happened to me, that the mother of my Lord comes to me? For as soon as I heard the sound of your greeting, the child in my womb leaped for joy. And blessed is she who believed that there would be a fulfillment of what was spoken to her by the Lord."

And Mary said,

"My soul magnifies the Lord,
and my spirit rejoices in God my Savior,
for he has looked with favor on the lowliness of his servant.
Surely, from now on all generations will call me blessed;
for the Mighty One has done great things for me,
and holy is his name.

His mercy is for those who fear him from generation to generation.

He has shown strength with his arm;
he has scattered the proud in the thoughts of their hearts.

He has brought down the powerful from their thrones,
and lifted up the lowly;

he has filled the hungry with good things,
and sent the rich away empty.

He has helped his servant Israel,
 in remembrance of his mercy,
 according to the promise he made to our ancestors,
 to Abraham and to his descendants forever."

And Mary remained with her about three months and then returned to her home. Now the time came for Elizabeth to give birth, and she bore a son.

Gospeler The Gospel of the Lord.
Assembly Praise to you, Lord Christ.

Prayers for the Candidates

Written by the Rev. Adam Spencer

- Bishop* Let us now pray for Brody, Carter, Milli, Rocky, and Ryder who have renewed their commitment to Christ.
- Intercessor* God be with you.
- Assembly* And also with you.
- Intercessor* Let us pray.
- (Silence)*
- O God, Creator of all things, these five confirmands for whom we pray to you are all fearfully and wonderfully made by your loving power. You have blessed them, each in a particular way, with imagination and curiosity, with gifts and abilities, with passions and dreams. You have crafted no others like them in all of your realms of existence. Continue to work powerfully in their lives, strengthening them, uplifting them, rooting and grounding them in your unshakeable Being. Help them, every day, to grow more and more into the people that you created them to be. Ever open their hearts to perceive and cherish your loving presence in all that you have made.
- Intercessor* God in your mercy,
- Assembly* Hear our prayer.

Intercessor O Jesus, our Teacher, our Friend, our Lord, you walk beside us each step of our life's journey. And you stand before us, beckoning us to learn, to understand, to follow you in everything we do. Be a close and trusted companion to Brody, Carter, Milli, Rocky, and Ryder in their pilgrimage of faith. Let them know that they are loved and accompanied and never left alone. Teach them to know you and to walk in your ways - to choose good and not evil, service and not selfishness, to stand in solidarity with all who suffer, and to pursue that peace, justice, and reconciliation which you embody in the Gospel and upon the Cross. Lead them to find in your holy way, O Lord, none other than the path to meaningful life and indestructible joy.

Intercessor God in your mercy,
Assembly Hear our prayer.

Intercessor O Holy Spirit, you are the fire of love burning in the deep heart of all things whose light shines with the brightness of unending day. Enkindle in the hearts of these five persons - and in all our hearts - the love with which you lit the stars in the sky. Breathe in their every breath, O Breath of God, and inspire them to live courageously and faithfully, and to channel their gifts in your service and in service of those around them. Sustain them day after day and give them inquiring and discerning hearts, the courage to will and to persevere, a spirit to know and to love you, and the gift of joy and wonder in all your works. Hold us to our vows as your holy Church, to support these persons in their life of faith - to be friends and teachers, sources of support in sorrow and trial, sharers in triumph and in joy. Enfold them in that great Trinitarian community of love and in that communion of holy ones which knows no ending.

Intercessor God in your mercy,
Assembly Hear our prayer.

Intercessor I invite you into a period of silence now in which you are encouraged to share your prayers for the confirmands, either silently or aloud.

(Silence)

Bishop Almighty God, we thank you that by the death and resurrection of your Son Jesus Christ you have overcome sin and brought us to yourself, and that by the sealing of your Holy Spirit you have bound us to your service. Renew in these your servants the covenant you have made with them at their Baptism. Send them forth in the power of that Spirit to perform the service you set before them; through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever.

Assembly Amen.

The Bishop lays hands upon each one and says

Bishop Strengthen, O Lord, your servant N. with your Holy Spirit; empower him for your service; and sustain him all the days of his life. Amen.

Bishop Almighty and everliving God, let your fatherly hand ever be over these your servants; let your Holy Spirit ever be with them; and so lead them in the knowledge and obedience of your Word, that they may serve you in this life, and dwell with you in the life to come; through Jesus Christ our Lord.

Assembly Amen.

The Great Thanksgiving

The Book of Common Prayer, Prayer A, Expansive Language

Presider God be with you.
Assembly And also with you.

Presider Lift up your hearts
Assembly We lift them to the Lord.

Presider Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.
Assembly It is right to give our thanks and praise.

Presider It is right, and a good and joyful thing, always and everywhere to give thanks to you, Almighty God, Creator of heaven and earth.

Because in the mystery of the Word made flesh, you have caused a new light to shine in our hearts, to give the knowledge of your glory in the face of your Son Jesus Christ our Lord.

Therefore we praise you, joining our voices with Angels and Archangels and with all the company of heaven, who for ever sing this hymn to proclaim the glory of your Name:

Ho - ly, ho - ly, ho - ly Lord, God of pow - er and might, heaven and earth are full of your glo - ry. Ho -

san - na in the high - est. Ho - san - na in the high - est.

Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord. Ho -

san - na in the high - est. Ho - san - na in the high - est.

The Hymnal 1982 #S125, Music: A Community Mass, Richard Proulx (b 1937)

Presider

Holy and gracious God: In your infinite love you made us for yourself; and, when we had fallen into sin and become subject to evil and death, you, in your mercy, sent Jesus Christ, your only and eternal Son, to share our human nature, to live and die as one of us, to reconcile us to you, the God and maker of all.

Jesus stretched out his arms upon the cross, and offered himself in obedience to your will, a perfect sacrifice for the whole world.

On the night he was handed over to suffering and death, our Savior Jesus Christ took bread; and when he had given thanks to you, he broke it, and gave it to his disciples, and said, "Take, eat: This is my Body, which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me."

After supper Jesus took the cup of wine; and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, and said, "Drink this, all of you: This is my Blood of the new Covenant, which is shed for you and for many for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me."

Therefore we proclaim the mystery of faith:

All

Christ has died. Christ is risen. Christ will come again.

Presider

We celebrate the memorial of our redemption, Almighty God, in this sacrifice of praise and thanksgiving. Recalling Christ's death, resurrection, and ascension, we offer you these gifts.

Sanctify them by your Holy Spirit to be for your people the Body and Blood of your Son, the holy food and drink of new and unending life in Christ. Sanctify us also that we may faithfully receive this holy Sacrament, and serve you in unity, constancy, and peace; and at the last day bring us with all your saints into the joy of your eternal kingdom.

All this we ask through Jesus Christ our Savior. By Christ, and with Christ, and in Christ, in the unity of the Holy Spirit all honor and glory is yours, Almighty God, now and for ever.

Assembly

Amen.

The Lord's Prayer

Presider And now, as our Savior Christ has taught us, we are bold to say,

All Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy Name, thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven.

Give us this day our daily bread.

And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us.

And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil.

For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, for ever and ever. Amen.

The Breaking of the Bread

The presider breaks the consecrated bread. A period of silence is kept.

Presider We break this bread to share in the Body of Christ.

Assembly We who are many are one body, for we all share in the one bread.

"Tell out, my soul"

 2 Tell out, my soul, the great-ness of his Name!

 Powers and do-minions lay their glo-ry by.
 Firm is his prom-ise, and his mer-cy sure.

 Proud hearts and stub-born wills are put to flight,
 Tell out, my soul, the great-ness of the Lord
