PURE AND CLEAN
WEEK 3 STAY PURE

After watching the video together – Say the point and Bible verse together

Point: Stay pure. Say, “No!” to sin.

Bible Verse: 1 Corinthians 10:13 “But when you are tempted, God will give you a way out so that you can stand up under it.”

- What will God do for us when we are tempted? Make a way out so we can say, “No!” to sin

Discussion Guide –

1. What is a temptation?
  - a. When you want to do something that's wrong
2. In the Bible story (Matthew 4:1-11), what did Jesus do each time the devil tempted him?
  - a. He said a truth from the Bible and refused to do the sin.
3. What are some “ways out” God gives us when we’re tempted to sin?
  - a. Bible verses, prayer, asking friends to help, leaving the situation, getting rid of things that tempt you, distracting yourself, etc.
4. If you give into temptation, what can you do to get back on the right path?
  - a. Ask God’s forgiveness, and ask Him to help you say, “No!” next time.

Action Steps –

1. What sins can you ask God to help you say, “No!” to this week?
2. Which “way out” do you think will help you say, “No!” to sin this week?
  - a. Answers will vary. See question #3 above for ideas, if needed.

Pure and Clean
WEEK 3

Week 3: Stay Pure

It's not a sin when you're tempted. It's a sin when you say, "Yes!" to the temptation and do what is wrong. When you're tempted, God will help you say, "No!" to the sin and stay pure.

Complete this activity with your family!

First, mark out the sins. Next, write the leftover red letters in order. Finally, look up the Bible verse you discover to answer the question below.

1. PUT YOURSELF FIRST
