

STANDING WITH ISRAEL'S YOUTH

A Firsthand Look at Israel's Mental Health Response in the Aftermath of October 7th

GUEST SPEAKER

Roni Moskovich

Manager, ELEM's Youth
Center in Tzfat

Tuesday, October 27, 2026

12 PM - 1 PM

Highland Park Conservative Temple
201 S 3rd Ave, Highland Park, NJ 08904

As Manager of ELEM's Hafuch Youth Center in Tzfat and a licensed social worker, Roni Moskovich offers an inside look at ELEM's critical frontline response following the events of October 7th. From supporting Nova festival survivors and aiding displaced youth across northern Israel to providing specialized trauma care for young people in crisis, Roni shares how ELEM is actively guiding Israel's youth through the profound emotional aftermath of war. Join us to learn how timely, hands-on intervention is healing a generation.

ABOUT ELEM

Founded in 1983, ELEM/Youth in Distress in Israel is the country's leading nonprofit supporting both at-risk and increasingly vulnerable youth. The organization serves over 15,000 youth from all segments of Israeli society and meets them where they are: on the streets at night, online, and in schools, community centers and public spaces.

RSVP REQUIRED

Scan code above or visit www.tinyurl.com/48htxm6e

TO WATCH RONI LIVE ON ZOOM, CONTACT:
Matthew Lacoff | mlacoff@elem.org | (551) 313-8491