

BAGELS, BOOKS & AUTHORS WITH DR. KERRY OLITZKY

A Special Book & Author Event for Children and their Adults

How is storytelling related to Jewish identity?
How does storytelling help create valuable family memories?

Kerry M. Olitzky is the former longtime executive director of Big Tent Judaism (previously the Jewish Outreach Institute), a national independent organization dedicated to bringing Judaism to interfaith families and the unaffiliated. He has been named as one of the 50 Leading Rabbis in North America by Newsweek. He is the award-winning author of over 100 books and hundreds of articles across a variety of fields, including numerous children's books.

Sun., Nov. 1st @ 12:00 PM

Join us for a storytelling morning with children's author Dr. Kerry Olitzky at the Highland Park Conservative Temple-Congregation Anshe Emeth

Listen to him read his book, The Desert Unicorn, and enjoy a bagel brunch!

Following Dr. Olitzky's reading, children will have fun with a story-related activity, while adults talk with Dr. Olitzky about the value of storytelling.

This event is free and open to all.
However, to help us prepare, we ask that you register in advance.

This event is best for children under 7
