OCTOBER 2023

Director's Corner

Fall is here and we are busy with lots of exciting things to celebrate the season. One of those things will be of particular interest to those of you who love Harry Potter: we are celebrating Halloween Harry Potter style on Saturday, October 28 with events happening between 12-4pm. There are several events planned for the entire family. Please join us!

In addition, we will be having a pumpkin decorating contest for all ages, to be judged by a panel of local celebrities, including our Town Supervisor! There will be four categories: Kids, Teens, Adults and Family. The drop offs will take place between October 19-21 and will be on display from October 23-28.

Our new parent support group (New Parents Together with Beth Villeneuve, IBCLC) starts on Thursday, October 10 and will be held every Thursday at 11am in our Program Room.

Director's Corner (Continued)

Want to enjoy the fall foliage? I highly recommend checking out one of our museum passes to some places that will be extraordinarily beautiful this time of year, including Boscobel, Storm King Art Center, and Stamford Museum and Nature Center.

Our regular programs are continuing as well including Mahjong, Threads and Yarns, Tot Time, Playdate at the Library, ESL Conversation Classes, Art Programs (in collaboration with the Pollock-Krasner House), Bookclubs, Creative Writing, and much more.

We look forward to seeing you soon.

With Kind Regards,

Jennifer

Oct 11, Nov 8, Dec 13, Jan 10, Feb 14, Mar 13, Apr 10

For Grades 6th - 10th

Did you know that “a growing body of research, focused on how the brain processes the combination of images and text, indicates that graphic novels are also excellent resources for advanced learners?”(Northwestern University, 2017) Graphic novels have become a popular format in classrooms, partly due to their appeal to reluctant readers. Apart from the adults, the teens love them and they cover many topics and forms. We will meet on the 2nd Wednesday of each month. Bus transportation is available from both the middle and high school.

Children's Events & Programs

Please register on our calendar or call the library for assistance.

10/18, 11/15, 12/13, 1/17, 2/14, 3/20, 4/17, 5/15

Do you like to talk about books with your friends? Come join Ms. Beth Levine and 4th and 5th graders from Somers once a month to discuss the same story! Participants receive a library book in advance to read before each meeting. During our meeting we will discuss the book, and do a craft, game or other activity. Registration is required and space is limited. Bus transportation will be available from SIS to the Library. Limited to Somers residents. Children must be entering the grade they register for.

Homeschool Presentations

2nd Friday of the month, 1 PM

Join other homeschoolers to present and share on various monthly topics! Homeschool presentation is a great way for homeschoolers to practice their oral reporting/presentation skills, research and writing skills as well as art and design. We have presenters that range in age from 4-15 years with younger siblings welcome to observe. Children love how we have a monthly unit study/project to work on that we then could "show and tell" to other homeschoolers! Some children prepare a poster with photos, some use props, some just talk, and some prepare a written essay that they read aloud. Sometimes parents come up with younger participants/non-readers to help or encourage them. All methods are welcome! At the end of each child's presentation, the floor is opened to questions. You must be a current homeschooler with school aged children to attend. This is not a drop off event. Limited to 16 children, please email Aubry (rambleonrose914@gmail.com) to RSVP and find out about this month's topic!

Friends of the Somers Library

October 2023

Annual Membership Drive

The Friends of the Somers Library is dedicated to supporting and enriching the Somers Library. Over the years, the library has played an essential role in the Town of Somers by providing access to knowledge, fostering literacy, and serving as a gathering place for residents of all ages. Our organization has been working to fund the library's resources and programs. We have witnessed firsthand the positive impact that the library has on our community, and we are committed to ensuring its continued success.

To that end, we are reaching out to you to request your support in our mission. The financial support of town residents has played a pivotal role in the growth and improvement of the Somers Library over the years, and we are grateful for the continued dedication.

Your generous donations have enabled us to:

1. Enhance Educational Programs: Through your support, we've been able to offer engaging and educational programs for children, teens, and adults, including author talks, workshops, and live events.
2. Improve Facilities: Your contributions have helped us make vital improvements to the library ensuring a comfortable and welcoming environment for all visitors.
3. Promote Involvement: Your donations have enabled us to launch initiatives aimed at community involvement in our town, including summer reading programs for children and educational programs for adults. As we look ahead, we are eager to expand our offerings. To achieve these goals, we kindly ask for your continued financial support. (Continued)

Friends of the Somers Library (Continued)

Please make an online donation.

To donate in person, there are membership flyers available at the front desk of the library that you can fill out and leave with one of the librarians. If you received one of our mailings, you can send a check in the envelope provided. Your donation, will make a significant difference in helping us fulfill our mission. Donating to the Friends of the Somers Library is an investment in the future of our town, Thank you!

Upcoming Special Event: Please join us on Sunday, October 22 at 2:00 PM in the library's Program Room for live theater!

M&M Theater Series presents a co-production with Red Monkey Theater Group of a pair of original short plays by authors Amy Frey and Sharon Latimer-Mosley. These one-acts will be presented together, and examine how the race, gender, class, and freedom in late 19th and early 20th century America still shape and inform modern sensibilities and struggles. "Thread" by Sharon Latimer-Mosley - In the wake of the Civil War Draft Riots that shook New York City in 1863, a manor house in the Bronx is the site of a long-delayed reunion between two African-American New Yorkers: a self-made dress-maker and a Navy recruiter who face crucial choices about the future they pursue – and whether it will be shared.

"Masher" by Amy Frey - Mrs. John G. Bettancourt is everything a model, upper-class Victorian woman should be: wife, mother, and hostess. But when she finds herself in a confrontation with a "masher" (a man who assaults women on the street), she suddenly needs to come to grips with the realities of the world around her and is forced to ask for help from an unexpected quarter.

No registration necessary. Seating is on a "first come, first seated" basis.

Somers Library Foundation October 2023

Autumn is a busy time for the Foundation. We are getting ready for our eleventh 5K Trail Run and 1 mile Family Fun Run on Sunday, 15 October in Reis Park. Come run, jog, or walk and be part of the future improvements at the Somers Library. We have flyers posted around the community with QR codes so you can register for the race or family fun run wherever you are. You can also register for the race here.

We are also looking for race day volunteers to help with race course set-up and race day activities like helping with race day registrations, providing our runners number bibs, making sure our participants get water during the race, recognizing our winners, and helping everyone have a good time. Please let us know if you are available to help out on race day!

“Running is the greatest metaphor for life, because you get out of it what you put into it.”
— Oprah Winfrey

You can be part of our important efforts to raise awareness, plan fundraising events, and engage with our donors and sponsors. We are always looking for community members to be part of our mighty team of volunteers. Stop by our table at Celebrate Somers - we are expecting it to be rescheduled on either 28 October or 4 November.
