Celeste Cabrera-Huff Officially Files for Texas House District 40

Republican Candidate Announces Filing in Austin — Vows to Secure the Border, Strengthen Schools, Protect Water, Support Law Enforcement, and End Domestic Violence Once and For All

AUSTIN, TEXAS — Today in Austin, Celeste Cabrera-Huff officially filed as the Republican candidate for Texas House District 40, launching a bold, family-centered campaign focused on safety, opportunity, and a stronger future for the Rio Grande Valley.

Cabrera-Huff — a business leader, author, community advocate, and domestic-violence survivor — said she is running to bring courage, accountability, and real solutions to South Texas.

“I filed today because the Rio Grande Valley deserves leadership that listens, shows up, and fights for our families every single day,” said Cabrera-Huff. “I’m running to secure the border, support law enforcement, strengthen our schools, protect South Texas water, and end domestic violence once and for all.”

Cabrera-Huff’s Priorities for House District 40

- Support Law Enforcement & Keep Neighborhoods Safe
- Secure the Border & Stop Cartel Crime
- Improve Healthcare Access & Support Providers
- Protect South Texas Water & Modernize Infrastructure
- Defend Parental Rights & Strengthen Schools
- Raise Teacher Pay & Improve Curriculum Standards
- Expand Domestic Violence Protections & Survivor Services
- Cut Property Taxes & Fix Unfair Appraisals
- Grow Small Business & Reduce Red Tape
- Ensure Government Transparency & Protect Election Integrity

“I’m running to serve the hardworking families of District 40 and build a safer, stronger, more prosperous future for every community across the Valley,” Cabrera-Huff added.

She will launch a series of districtwide listening sessions and community events in the days ahead.
