FACULTY

Paul Bryson

Jane Marx joined Carlile Patchen & Murphy in August 2000 and practices estate and business planning, probate, probate litigation, business succession planning, and elder law. Jane counsels individuals, business owners, executives and caregivers on matters of estate planning, estate & gift taxation, income taxation of trusts & estates, charitable giving, business succession and probate. She provides comprehensive planning for disability, including counseling on special needs and elder law issues. Jane assists executors, trustees, guardians, and other fiduciaries in complying with various legal and fiduciary responsibilities. Jane is the current chair of the firm's Family Wealth & Estate Planning group and is a fellow in the American College of Trust and Estate Counsel (ACTEC). Jane received her law degree from The Ohio State University College of Law. She received her Bachelor of Arts in both English Literature and Economics from Denison University, cum laude.

Andrew Marvin joined Carlile Patchen & Murphy LLP in 2018. His practice is centered around estate planning for individuals and business owners. He focuses in the areas of estate planning and trust & estate administration, handling complex estate and tax planning matters and business succession planning matters. He received his undergraduate degree from Kent State University and his law degree from The University of Louisville Brandeis School of Law.

Dianna Parker Howie is the Pro Bono Team Managing Attorney for LASC and Southeastern Ohio Legal Services. A 2005 graduate of Moritz College of Law, and 2002 graduate of Northwestern University, Dianna started her career at the Equal Justice Foundation as an Equal Justice Works Fellow, advocating for the education rights of students experiencing homelessness. She has practiced in the areas of education and housing law.
