

Pharm D Programs for US-licensed International Graduates

State	CO	MA		DC
Pharmacy School	University of Colorado Anschutz Medical Campus	Massachusetts College of Pharmacy and Health Sciences		Howard University
Program	North American-Trained PharmD (NTPD) CU School of Pharmacy (cuanschutz.edu)	Massachusetts College of Pharmacy and Health Sciences Accelerated PharmD Program	Non-Traditional Doctor of Pharmacy (NTDP) MCPHS--Online	https://pharmacy.howard.edu/academic-programs/non-traditional-doctor-pharmacy-ntdp-program
Application Deadline	Spring 2023: October 15 (November 15 last day), Fall 2023: March 15	1-Jun	Jul 1st- starts in fall	Mar-1 (Program Starts: August of each year)
Cost	$64,000	$1275/credit, 137 credits (~$170k) Tuition	1060/credit, 37 credits, ~40000/program	~60,000/program Tuition
Scholarship	N/A	N/A	N/A
Length of the program	2 - 3 years	34 months	24 months	2 years (should be completed within 5 years)
Program Format	Online 100%, can do rotations where you live	full-time	online 4-week clinical rotation at the end of the program may be completed in the state in which the student is licensed.	Online, self-paced, only one 3 day long required on-site visit
Application requirements	US Licensed	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> *Online only for licensed BS Pharm Bachelor's degree or the appropriate amount of college credits and prerequisites. Students with international coursework must submit a course-by-course evaluation from World Education Service (www.wes.org) or Education Credential Evaluators (www.ece.org) Required courses see below  Admission is based on Interview 	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> Have a Bachelor of Science in pharmacy from a U.S. accredited college or university or have graduated from a recognized/accredited school of pharmacy in a non-U.S. country. Have licensure to practice pharmacy in the United States Be employed in a patient-care setting Application Requirements Completed MCPHS Graduate Application Official transcript from the college where your BS in Pharmacy was earned. Official transcripts from non-U.S. secondary schools, colleges, or universities must also be sent to World Education Services or Educational Credential Evaluators for a course-by-course evaluation. Photocopy of an active pharmacist license Current resume Personal Statement (500-1,000 words) One professional letter of recommendation Admission is based on Interview	American and Canadian citizens <ol style="list-style-type: none"> Notarized photocopy of current US Pharmacy Registration/license Two letters of recommendation from pharmacy colleagues A letter of Career Plan/Statement of Goals (800-1000 typed words) Two professional headshot photos (taken in past 3-6 months) Applicant must successfully complete an interview
Language Proficiency	N/A	TOEFL 79 IELTS 6.6 Duolingo 105

Required courses for students with a U.S. or Canadian Bachelor's Degree or a U.S. Master's Degree effective beginning fall 2022:

Linked courses are available through the MCPHS School of Professional Studies.

General Biology I (3 credits), General Biology II with lab (4 credits), Anatomy and Physiology (3 credits; lab is optional), General Chemistry I with lab (4 credits), General Chemistry II with lab (4 credits), Microbiology with lab (3 credits), Organic Chemistry I with lab (4 credits), Organic Chemistry II (3 credits; lab is optional), Calculus (3 credits), Math or Computer Science Elective (3 credits), Statistics (3 credits) (Acceptable substitutions include Basic Statistics, Biostatistics, Psychological Statistics, Economic Statistics), Physics (3 credits; lab is optional)

*Additional courses required for students without a U.S. or Canadian Bachelor's Degree:

English Composition (3 credits), English Elective (3 credits) (Acceptable courses include any additional English course including Introduction to Literature, Poetry, Women Writers, English Composition II, or English Literature), Introduction to Psychology (3 credits), Introduction to Sociology (3 credits), Introduction to History or Political Science (3 credits), Economics (3 credits), Humanities elective (3 credits) (Acceptable courses include Literature, Creative Writing, Philosophy, Ethics, Religious Studies, Select Fine Arts, Advanced Level Languages), Social Science Elective (3 credits) (Acceptable courses include Cultural Studies, Anthropology, Government, American Studies, Women's Studies, Economics, Ethnic Studies, or an additional History or Political Science course), Behavioral Science elective (3 credits) (Acceptable courses include any upper level psychology or sociology course)