- Receive reports from the church council and adopt objectives and goals that align with the objectives of The United Methodist Church.
- Make decisions regarding the pastor’s compensation, elect congregational leaders, and approve building programs.

ADVENT NIGHT
Sunday, November 16, 5:30pm-7pm, Fellowship Hall. Join Us for Advent Night — A “Happy Little” Christmas Painting Party with Paula Laundry.

All are welcome to our Advent Night celebration—a joyful and creative evening where faith meets art. This year, we’re channeling our inner Bob Ross as Paula Laundry guides us through painting a peaceful scene of Mary, Joseph, Baby Jesus, and the manger, a “happy little masterpiece” that captures the heart of Christmas.

We’ll sip on warm cocoa from our cozy hot chocolate bar, enjoy delicious treats, and let the brushstrokes remind us of the hope, peace, joy, and love that Advent brings. No experience is needed, just bring your smile, your church family, and a heart ready to slow down and celebrate this beautiful season of waiting and wonder.

Cost is $25 per household. Please register ONE (1) person from your household. Tell us the number of people in your party in the additional information section. You can also add their names in the memo section.

THE LORD’S PRAYER

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come, thy will be done on earth, as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever. Amen.

SACRAMENT OF HOLY COMMUNION

The Lord be with you.
And also with you.

Lift up your hearts.
We lift them up to the Lord.

Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.
It is right to give our thanks and praise.

It is right, and a good and joyful thing, always and everywhere to give thanks to you, Father Almighty, Creator of heaven and earth: God of Abraham and Sarah, God of Miriam and Moses, God of Joshua and Deborah, God of Ruth and David, God of the priests and the prophets, God of Mary and Joseph, God of the apostles and the martyrs, God of our mothers and our fathers, God of our children to all generations. And so, with your people on earth and all the company of heaven, we praise your name and join their unending hymn:

Holy, holy, holy Lord, God of power and might, heaven and earth are full of your glory. Hosanna in the highest. Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord. Hosanna in the highest.

Holy are you, and blessed is your Son Jesus Christ. By the baptism of his suffering, death, and resurrection you gave birth to your Church, delivered us from slavery to sin and death, and made with us a new covenant by water and the Spirit.

On the night in which he gave himself up for us, he took bread, gave thanks to you, broke the bread, gave it to his disciples, and said: “Take, eat; this is my body which is given for you. Do this in remembrance of me.”

When the supper was over he took the cup, gave thanks to you, gave it to his disciples, and said: “Drink from this, all of you; this is my blood of the new covenant, poured out for you and for many for the forgiveness of sins. Do this, as often as you drink it, in remembrance of me.”

And so, in remembrance of these your mighty acts in Jesus Christ, we offer ourselves in praise and thanksgiving as a holy and living sacrifice, in union with Christ’s offering for us, as we proclaim the mystery of faith.

Christ has died; Christ is risen; Christ will come again.

Pour out your Holy Spirit on us gathered here, and on these gifts of bread and wine. Make them be for us the body and blood of Christ, that we may be for the world the body of Christ, redeemed by his blood.

Renew our communion with all your saints, especially those whom we have named before you.

Since we are surrounded by so great a cloud of witnesses, strengthen us to run with perseverance the race that is set before us, looking to Jesus, the Pioneer and Perfecter of our faith. By your Spirit make us one with Christ, one with each other, and one in ministry to all the world, until Christ comes in final victory, and we feast at his heavenly banquet. Through your Son Jesus Christ, with the Holy Spirit in your holy Church, all honor and glory is yours, almighty Father (God), now and for ever. Amen.

(At the conclusion of Holy Communion, we invite those who wish to receive Communion from your seat to raise their hand, as you will be served by our Clergy)
