2019 RESIDENTIAL AWARDS

THE AWARDS RECOGNIZE PROPERTY OWNERS WHO MAKE AN EXTRA EFFORT TO MAINTAIN A BEAUTIFUL HOME AND GARDEN.

307 Touraine
Road

Andrew and Elizabeth Housey

“Beautiful example of a primarily green landscape design that still has texture and interest. The Clematis climbing on either side of the door was also a nice touch and added interest along the white brick. Very lovely home.”

232 Fisher Road

Steven and
Leslie McMillan

“The yard has a nice assortment
of annuals, perennials and ornamental trees.”

84 Vendome

William and Kathy Patterson

“The elements of this property are classical and beautiful. Pyramidal trees in planters flank the doorway with appropriate scale. The hedges are trimmed to a nice height and the white flowers bring a crisp freshness to the very green yard.

84 Vendome William and Kathy Patterson

144 Mapleton

Mary Anne Petz

“Pristine beauty, worthy of the front page. The house and landscape design is one of much detail and formality. In all categories, one can easily see the highest points awarded, 12, building maintenance 12, group upkeep 12.”

144 Mapleton

38 Newberry Pl.

Joseph and Barbara Palazzolo

“Nice layered look with good variety also has two second level
window boxes that add nice color.”

192 Charlevoix Rd

Bruce and Joyce
Campbell

“This house and the landscape design is a hidden jewel in the Farms. To truly appreciate its beautification and "depth" of artistic landscape design, one need only stand out front. Multiple tier gardens makes this property truly a wow factor and, 12 points in all categories.”
