The Ultimate Guide to Career Options & Choices for Parents & High School Students

SPONSORED BY THE CONSTRUCTION INDUSTRY

There are tens of thousands of careers in America.
How many career paths are there to get to those tens of thousands of jobs?
ONLY FIVE!

Traditional College

Technical College

Military

Apprenticeship
& Trade School

Straight to Work

Navigating the post-high school career path can feel scary and overwhelming. The numerous post-high school options and training costs involved require knowledge and planning. To help parents and students, we invite you to register for The Ultimate Guide to Career Options & Choices for Parents & High School Students webinar.

Workshop presenters will explore the five paths to preparing for a career, cost of college versus technical schools versus apprenticeships, and how students and parents can best prepare for their chosen career paths.

Following the webinar, topic specific breakout rooms will be available to parents and students. Breakout rooms will provide parents and students the opportunity to ask questions to industry representatives, education representatives and military representatives. A complete list of breakout sessions will be available before the webinar.
