STRATTON GILMORE

Stratton started playing tennis when he was a kid living in Madison, WI. Following his love of the sport, he went on to play Division 1 college tennis at Portland State University then Division 3 tennis for University of Mary Washington.

After college, Stratton played Futures events in the U.S. and around the world, including Dominican Republic, Belgium, Romania and Turkey, earning an ITF World Tour Ranking. In Belgium, he played club tennis for Argayon. Throughout his career, he has privately coached juniors and has also coached at tournaments internationally.

Before coming to Boar's Head Resort, Stratton resided in Delray Beach, FL, where he taught both juniors and adults at a variety of clubs and was a hitting partner for the ATP 250 Delray Beach event. He relocated to Charlottesville to be volunteer assistant coach for University of Virginia Men's Tennis.

Tennis runs in the family, as Stratton's older brother Connor played for the University of Iowa and both of his parents, Chris and Susan, are avid tennis players to this day.
