THE RESORT

● Mill Room

Woven into the fabric of this 600-acre resort, our AAA four-diamond restaurant offers an open door and smile upon arrival. The interiors are highlighted by several time-tested wooden beams that date back to the mid-1800s and once stood tall to support a gristmill on the banks of the nearby Hardware River. The flooring consists of old pine planking from the mill and still bears the scars of barrels once rolled across its surface. The mill's massive grist stones now lie in the courtyard located below the dining room.

● Birdwood Mansion

Constructed in the early 1830s, Birdwood Mansion is a landmark of Boar's Head Resort and sits quietly alongside the 17th green at Birdwood Golf. Around 1917 additions to the mansion included a stone shed and water tower that was cleverly designed to emulate a water tower. Despite this homestead sitting empty, the future looks bright. Plans are currently in place to transform the Birdwood Mansion into a premier wedding and event venue.

● Boar's Head Trails

Our Boar's Head Heritage trail systems offer adventure just outside of your hotel room. With more than 12 miles of walking paths, our trails are suitable for families or the experienced hiker.
