The Sixth Sunday After the Epiphany

THE FIRST READING

Deuteronomy 30:15-20

A reading from the Book of Deuteronomy:

Moses said, "See, I have set before you today life and prosperity, death and adversity. If you obey the commandments of the LORD your God that I am commanding you today, by loving the LORD your God, walking in his ways, and observing his commandments, decrees, and ordinances, then you shall live and become numerous, and the LORD your God will bless you in the land that you are entering to possess. But if your heart turns away and you do not hear, but are led astray to bow down to other gods and serve them, I declare to you today that you shall perish; you shall not live long in the land that you are crossing the Jordan to enter and possess. I call heaven and earth to witness against you today that I have set before you life and death, blessings and curses. Choose life so that you and your descendants may live, loving the LORD your God, obeying him, and holding fast to him; for that means life to you and length of days, so that you may live in the land that the LORD swore to give to your ancestors, to Abraham, to Isaac, and to Jacob."

The Sixth Sunday After the Epiphany

PSALM 119:1-8

- 1 Happy are they whose way is / blameless, *
who walk in the law of the / LORD!
- 2 Happy are they who observe his de- / crees *
and seek him with all their / hearts!
- 3 Who never do any / wrong, *
but always walk in / his ways.
- 4 You laid down your com- / mandments, *
that we should fully / keep them.
- 5 Oh, that my ways were made so di- / rect *
that I might keep your / statutes!
- 6 Then I should not be put to / shame, *
when I regard all your com- / mandments.
- 7 I will thank you with an unfeigned / heart, *
when I have learned your righteous / judgments.
- 8 I will keep your / statutes; *
do not utterly for- / sake me.

THE SECOND READING

1 Corinthians 3:1-9

A reading from the First Letter of Paul to the Corinthians:

Brothers and sisters, I could not speak to you as spiritual people, but rather as people of the flesh, as infants in Christ. I fed you with milk, not solid food, for you were not ready for solid food. Even now you are still not ready, for you are still of the flesh. For as long as there is jealousy and quarreling among you, are you not of the flesh, and behaving according to human inclinations? For when one says, "I belong to Paul," and another, "I belong to Apollos," are you not merely human?

What then is Apollos? What is Paul? Servants through whom you came to believe, as the Lord assigned to each. I planted, Apollos watered, but God gave the growth. So neither the one who plants nor the one who waters is anything, but only God who gives the growth. The one who plants and the one who waters have a common purpose, and each will receive wages according to the labor of each. For we are God's servants, working together; you are God's field, God's building.

People: Thanks be to God.
