THE FIRST READING

Jeremiah 29:1, 4-7

A reading from the Book of the prophet Jeremiah:

These are the words of the letter that the prophet Jeremiah sent from Jerusalem to the remaining elders among the exiles, and to the priests, the prophets, and all the people, whom Nebuchadnezzar had taken into exile from Jerusalem to Babylon.

Thus says the Lord of hosts, the God of Israel, to all the exiles whom I have sent into exile from Jerusalem to Babylon: Build houses and live in them; plant gardens and eat what they produce. Take wives and have sons and daughters; take wives for your sons, and give your daughters in marriage, that they may bear sons and daughters; multiply there, and do not decrease. But seek the welfare of the city where I have sent you into exile, and pray to the Lord on its behalf, for in its welfare you will find your welfare.

Lector: The Word of the Lord.

People: Thanks be to God.

PSALM 111

Anglican Chant by Sam Doyle

- 1 Hallelujah! I will give thanks to the LORD with my whole / heart, * in the assembly of the upright, in the congre / gation.
- 2 Great are the deeds of the / LORD! *
they are studied by all who delight / in them.
- 3 His work is full of majesty and / splendor, *
and his righteousness endures for / ever.
- 4 He makes his marvelous works to be re- / membered; *
the LORD is gracious and full of com- / passion.
- 5 He gives food to those who / fear him; *
he is ever mindful of his / covenant.
- 6 He has shown his people the power of his / works *
in giving them the lands of the / nations.
- 7 The works of his hands are faithfulness and / justice; *
all his commandments are / sure.
- 8 They stand fast for ever and / ever, *
because they are done in truth and / equity.
- 9 He sent redemption to his people; he commanded his covenant for / ever; *
holy and awesome is his / Name.
- 10 The fear of the LORD is the beginning of / wisdom; *
those who act accordingly have a good understanding;
his praise endures for / ever.

A reading from the second Letter of Paul to Timothy:

Remember Jesus Christ, raised from the dead, a descendant of David-- that is my gospel, for which I suffer hardship, even to the point of being chained like a criminal. But the word of God is not chained. Therefore I endure everything for the sake of the elect, so that they may also obtain the salvation that is in Christ Jesus, with eternal glory. The saying is sure:

If we have died with him, we will also live with him;
if we endure, we will also reign with him;
if we deny him, he will also deny us;
if we are faithless, he remains faithful--
for he cannot deny himself.

Remind them of this, and warn them before God that they are to avoid wrangling over words, which does no good but only ruins those who are listening. Do your best to present yourself to God as one approved by him, a worker who has no need to be ashamed, rightly explaining the word of truth.

Lector: The Word of the Lord.

People: Thanks be to God.

Please stand, sung by all.

THE HOLY GOSPEL

Luke 17:11-19

Deacon: The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Luke.

People: Glory to you, Lord Christ.

On the way to Jerusalem Jesus was going through the region between Samaria and Galilee. As he entered a village, ten lepers approached him. Keeping their distance, they called out, saying, "Jesus, Master, have mercy on us!" When he saw them, he said to them, "Go and show yourselves to the priests." And as they went, they were made clean. Then one of them, when he saw that he was healed, turned back, praising God with a loud voice. He prostrated himself at Jesus' feet and thanked him. And he was a Samaritan. Then Jesus asked, "Were not ten made clean? But the other nine, where are they? Was none of them found to return and give praise to God except this foreigner?" Then he said to him, "Get up and go on your way; your faith has made you well."

Deacon: The Gospel of the Lord.

People: Praise to you, Lord Christ.

THE NICENE CREED

BCP p358

Celebrant and People:

We believe in one God, the Father, the Almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all that is, seen and unseen.

We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ, the only Son of God, eternally begotten of the Father, God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, of one Being with the Father. Through him all things were made. For us and for our salvation he came down from heaven: by the power of the Holy Spirit he became incarnate from the Virgin Mary, and was made man. For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate; he suffered death and was buried. On the third day he rose again in accordance with the Scriptures; he ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead, and his kingdom will have no end.

We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son. With the Father and the Son he is worshiped and glorified. He has spoken through the Prophets. We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church. We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins. We look for the resurrection of the dead, and the life of the world to come. Amen.
