THE FIRST READING

Exodus 34:29-35

A reading from the Book of Exodus:

Moses came down from Mount Sinai. As he came down from the mountain with the two tablets of the covenant in his hand, Moses did not know that the skin of his face shone because he had been talking with God. When Aaron and all the Israelites saw Moses, the skin of his face was shining, and they were afraid to come near him. But Moses called to them; and Aaron and all the leaders of the congregation returned to him, and Moses spoke with them. Afterward all the Israelites came near, and he gave them in commandment all that the Lord had spoken with him on Mount Sinai. When Moses had finished speaking with them, he put a veil on his face; but whenever Moses went in before the Lord to speak with him, he would take the veil off, until he came out; and when he came out, and told the Israelites what he had been commanded, the Israelites would see the face of Moses, that the skin of his face was shining; and Moses would put the veil on his face again, until he went in to speak with him.

THE SECOND READING

2 Corinthians 3:12-4:2

A reading from the second Letter of Paul to the Corinthians:

Since, then, we have such a hope, we act with great boldness, not like Moses, who put a veil over his face to keep the people of Israel from gazing at the end of the glory that was being set aside. But their minds were hardened. Indeed, to this very day, when they hear the reading of the old covenant, that same veil is still there, since only in Christ is it set aside. Indeed, to this very day whenever Moses is read, a veil lies over their minds; but when one turns to the Lord, the veil is removed. Now the Lord is the Spirit, and where the Spirit of the Lord is, there is freedom. And all of us, with unveiled faces, seeing the glory of the Lord as though reflected in a mirror, are being transformed into the same image from one degree of glory to another; for this comes from the Lord, the Spirit.

Therefore, since it is by God's mercy that we are engaged in this ministry, we do not lose heart. We have renounced the shameful things that one hides; we refuse to practice cunning or to falsify God's word; but by the open statement of the truth we commend ourselves to the conscience of everyone in the sight of God.

THE HOLY GOSPEL

Luke 9:28-36

Celebrant: The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Luke.

People: Glory to you, Lord Christ.

Jesus took with him Peter and John and James, and went up on the mountain to pray. And while he was praying, the appearance of his face changed, and his clothes became dazzling white. Suddenly they saw two men, Moses and Elijah, talking to him. They appeared in glory and were speaking of his departure, which he was about to accomplish at Jerusalem. Now Peter and his companions were weighed down with sleep; but since they had stayed awake, they saw his glory and the two men who stood with him. Just as they were leaving him, Peter said to Jesus, "Master, it is good for us to be here; let us make three dwellings, one for you, one for Moses, and one for Elijah"--not knowing what he said. While he was saying this, a cloud came and overshadowed them; and they were terrified as they entered the cloud. Then from the cloud came a voice that said, "This is my Son, my Chosen; listen to him!" When the voice had spoken, Jesus was found alone. And they kept silent and in those days told no one any of the things they had seen.

THE NICENE CREED

BCP p358

Celebrant and People:

We believe in one God, the Father, the Almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all that is, seen and unseen.

We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ, the only Son of God, eternally begotten of the Father, God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, of one Being with the Father. Through him all things were made. For us and for our salvation he came down from heaven: by the power of the Holy Spirit he became incarnate from the Virgin Mary, and was made man. For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate; he suffered death and was buried. On the third day he rose again in accordance with the Scriptures; he ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead, and his kingdom will have no end.

We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son. With the Father and the Son he is worshiped and glorified. He has spoken through the Prophets. We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church. We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins. We look for the resurrection of the dead, and the life of the world to come. Amen.

THE PRAYERS OF THE PEOPLE

THE CONFESSION AND ABSOLUTION

BCP p360

Deacon: Let us confess our sins against God and our neighbor.

All: Most merciful God, we confess that we have sinned against you in thought, word, and deed, by what we have done, and by what we have left undone. We have not loved you with our whole heart; we have not loved our neighbors as ourselves. We are truly sorry and we humbly repent. For the sake of your Son Jesus Christ, have mercy on us and forgive us; that we may delight in your will, and walk in your ways, to the glory of your Name. Amen.

Celebrant: Almighty God have mercy on you, forgive you all your sins through our Lord Jesus Christ, strengthen you in all goodness, and by the power of the Holy Spirit keep you in eternal life. Amen.

Adult Offerings - Lent 2022 (March 2nd - April 16th)

As we seek to take stock in our spiritual lives during Lent, we have several offerings for you to share in. With our world changing due to many different things, this year our Lenten offerings will provide quiet spaces, relevant conversations, and moments to reflect on where God is calling you individually and all of us as the community of St. Francis.

Ash Wednesday, March 2nd

We will be offering 3 services on this day each with the imposition of ashes. The times are 7:00am, 12:00pm, and 7:00pm. All services will be held in the Nave at St. Francis

Adult Formation, Sunday Evenings 6:00pm – Cornerstone Room

Each Sunday Evening during Lent, we will explore the series “Women of the Movement.” This is an adaptation on the life of Mammie and Emmitt Till. We will watch portions of the series and discuss. We will ask questions around what the role of the church was during that time and what is the role of the church today? This will be much more than a conversation about race. It will be about loving God loving our neighbor as ourselves. It will be about justice. It will be about coming to understand how we as a church can move forward in these divided times, we are all living in.

Hans Holbein the Younger "The Rich Man" Woodcut 1523

Wednesday Evening Book Study 7:30pm – Zoom

Each Wednesday we will be exploring the book The Sunflower by Simon Wiesenthal. This true story explores forgiveness through the eyes of Jewish prisoner in a concentration camp. The book also includes many different prominent peoples (both in and out of the church) views on how they understand forgiveness and view it in the world. We hope you will join us for a conversation of forgiveness during Lent.

Mid-Day Eucharist 12:00pm Tuesdays – In the Nave

On Tuesdays we will pause for a brief time in our busy weeks for a conversation around the gospel lesson and Eucharist. This will be a time for us to come together in both word and table during this season of reflection and repentance.
