

CHRISTIAN EDUCATION

AFTER LUNCH

Rethinking Adult CE: Sharing Possibilities and Resources

We invite you to join in a conversation about the why, what, when, and how of providing Christian Ed to adults. We will share resources, thoughts and ideas about the challenges of meeting the needs of our congregations and deepening their discipleship through fellowship and study. Feel to bring resources that you are using and would like to share with others.

Jen Kottler is an educator, a spiritual director and a clergy coach living and working in Irvington, NY. An ordained pastor and corresponding member of HRP, Jen is a former public school teacher and has served two congregations as an associate pastor focusing on adult education, pastoral care and missions. She is married to Gavin Meek, our Interim General Presbyter.

Lisa Niven is a Ruling Elder and Director of Christian Education at the Irvington Presbyterian Church, where she has been a member for 25 years. Lisa is also Director of the Saint-Gaudens Memorial, a small arts foundation, and is currently serving on the Committee on Ministry.