

Welcome to the Mississippi Parent Training and Information Center

If you are the parent of a child with a disability, age birth to 26, we are here to provide your family with information, resources, support, and training to help your child meet his or her educational goals.

We also help youth with disabilities, age 14 to 26, develop skills to become self-advocates and learn about services to help them lead a productive adult life.

601-969-0601

Email Help Desk
info@mspti.org

A program of the Mississippi Coalition for Citizens with Disabilities

Funded by the U.S. Department of Education Office of Special Education Programs

The following is a list of training topics available by presentation or as online trainings:

- Basic IDEA Rights and Responsibilities
- Individualized Education Program (IEP)
- Early Childhood Transition
- Autism Spectrum Disorders
- Effective Advocacy Skills for Parents
- Working for Change, Using the Power of a Personal Story
- Journey to Independence Understanding Transition and Self-Advocacy
- Conflict Resolution
- Getting and Keeping the First Job

Services available to parents and youth with disabilities are always free and available in a variety of ways:

- Telephone
- Email
- One on One

MSPTI provides services that...

Help children and youth receive appropriate special education services

Empower parents to make informed decisions about their child's education and communicate more effectively with professionals

Help families and schools understand IDEA and how it benefits students with disabilities

Help youth with disabilities understand their rights and empower them to become self-advocates

Improve outcomes for children and youth with disabilities

Trainings are available free of charge to help parents and family members of students with disabilities and youth with disabilities become effective advocates.

Trainings and workshops are conducted statewide...call today to get information about arranging one for your area!

