Creating Your Own Path: Successful Transitions for Persons with Autism

This one-day virtual conference will be held on Thursday, September 10, 2020, from 8:00 a.m. to 4:00 p.m. on GoToWebinar. The importance of transitions for those with autism cannot be stressed enough and doesn't happen overnight. The objective of this conference is to provide parents, advocates, professionals, and people with autism the opportunity to learn about resources and evidence-based best practices regarding planning and executing successful transitions, no matter the age.

Conference Speakers:

- Carol M. Schall, PhD, Associate Professor, Rehabilitation, Research and Training Center at VCU
- Susan Buttross, M.D., Physician and Medical Director of the Center for the Advancement of Youth, University of Mississippi Medical Center
- Rebecca Mullican, PhD, Founder and Family Interventionist, Jackson Autism Center
- Amber Hall, Disability Integration Advisor, Mississippi Emergency Management Agency
- Jennifer Jackson, Autism Program Coordinator, Mississippi Department of Rehabilitation Services
- Faye Culpepper, Supported Employment Program Coordinator & Project Search State Coordinator, Mississippi Department of Rehabilitation Services

Who should attend: Anyone who works with, designs, provides supports to, or is a person with autism, such as: teachers, para-professionals, school administrators, advocates, parents, support coordinators, nursing home administrators, and social workers. Attendance certificates are also available. For additional CE information contact Mickey Alford at mickey@msccd.org.

Registration: There is no registration fee for this virtual training opportunity.

Participants may register online at tinyurl.com/asdtransition2020 or return a completed registration. Attendance scholarships are available for parents/guardians of and/or persons with autism. Additional fees may apply for University CEU, Social Workers and Nursing Home Administrators.
