

Web Development/Virtual Reality Service Learning Volunteer – Information Technology

Work Location: Cleveland Metroparks IT Department, located at 4101 Fulton Parkway, Cleveland, OH 44144; some fieldwork throughout the Park District

Description: Assist with virtual reality project and may assist with day-to-day updates to public website, zoo websites, and employee portal, field capture of 360-degree video, video processing

Requirements: 18 years and older. Must be enrolled in a college program. Technology background required.

Time Commitment: Variable/Seasonal, 5 – 20 hours per month

Qualifications:

- Experience with content management systems
- Experience with or ability to learn Adobe Premier/After Effects
- Experience with or ability to use 360 cameras and software
- Enjoy working independently and occasionally interacting with the public
- Ability to follow safety procedures, protocols and adhere to Core Values
- Coding experience preferred but not required.

Responsibilities:

- Obtain content for virtual reality project
- Work in the field with camera to capture images
- Assist with department tech issues such as updating and building web forms

Supervisor: Adam Harvey, Information Technology Services