Gift Planning Counselor

English District - LCMS

Gift Planning Services – LCMS Foundation

The Lutheran Church – Missouri Synod Foundation seeks candidates for the position of Gift Planning Counselor to work on behalf of the English District of the LCMS. This position will be responsible for serving LCMS members with an affinity or connection with the District and LCMS ministries within the District as well as other Lutherans who desire to fulfill their Spirit-led drive for generosity by working with them to develop their “Lifetime Plan for Giving.”

The Gift Planning Counselor plays a vital role in establishing and strengthening donor, congregational and organizational relationships, constantly making the services of the Foundation available to them. The location for this position will be flexible, most likely in proximity to the Gift Planning Counselor’s home. This aspect of the position will be negotiated between the Foundation, the English District and the selected candidate for this position.

Candidates for this position are to be active members of an LCMS congregation; must hold a Bachelor’s Degree or have equivalent experience. The ideal candidate must have two or more years of proven experience in gift planning or fund development. They will possess integrity, people skills, communication skills and the ability to motivate others. Additional requirements are the ability to exercise professional discretion and judgment in confidential matters and the willingness and ability to travel as required.
