

Seniors by the Wayside!

Wednesday, February 12, 2020
12:00 noon

Speakers: Dr. Laura Poskitt and Emily Seitz, CSC
Topic: Health Care in the Plain Community

On February 12 we will learn about health care focused on the Plain community and how The Clinic for Special Children in Lancaster County specializes in treating the Amish and Mennonite communities who live with genetic diseases. Dr. Laura Poskitt and Emily Seitz, CSC will tell us about their work at the Clinic.

Emily Seitz graduated York College with a BA in History and Behavioral Science. She earned an MA in History and Women's, Gender, and Sexuality Studies from The Pennsylvania State University. Ms. Seitz joined the Clinic for Special Children in August 2018 as a part-time Scientific Grant Writer and was promoted to Development Director in October 2019. She is currently a PhD candidate at Penn State in the Departments of History and Women's, Gender, and Sexuality Studies. Her dissertation is titled "What About the Mother? - Managing Maternal Mortality in Philadelphia, 1850-1973".

Laura Poskitt, DO, a native of Lancaster County, attended Grove City College for her undergraduate degree. She graduated from the Philadelphia College of Osteopathic Medicine and completed her pediatric training and Chief Residency at Nemours/E.I. duPont Children's Hospital in Wilmington, DE. Dr. Poskitt, the newest pediatrician at the Clinic, is passionate about the healing of the whole person.

Our Senior group meets on the second Wednesday of each month at 12 noon over a brown bag lunch in Wayside's church Atrium to hear invited speakers on various topics. We will provide the beverages. While we focus on the interest of senior adults, we have no age limit and persons of all ages are welcome at these meetings!

WAYSIDE
Presbyterian Church
faith, friends, fellowship

Wayside is located at 600 Stony Battery Rd in Landisville, between Marietta Avenue and Main Street Landisville, past the QVC.

For more information, call us at 898-1551 or visit www.waysidepc.org