OPENING HYMN HYMNAL 408
Sing praise to God who reigns above

Please stand as you are able.
THE ACCLAMATION AND COLLECT FOR PURITY

Celebrant: Blessed be God: Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.
People: And blessed be God's kingdom, now and for ever. Amen.
Celebrant: Almighty God, to you all hearts are open, all desires known, and from you no secrets are hid: Cleanse the thoughts of our hearts by the inspiration of your Holy Spirit, that we may perfectly love you, and worthily magnify your holy Name; through Christ our Lord.
People: Amen.

GLORIA HYMNAL S-280

Glory to God in the highest,
and peace to his people on earth.
Lord God, heavenly King,
almighty God and Father,
we worship you, we give you thanks,
we praise you for your glory.
Lord Jesus Christ, only Son of the Father, Lord God, Lamb of God,
you take away the sin of the world:
have mercy on us;
you are seated at the right hand of the Father:
receive our prayer.
For you alone are the Holy One,
you alone are the Lord,
you alone are the Most High,
Jesus Christ,
with the Holy Spirit,
in the glory of God the Father. Amen.

Celebrant: The Lord be with you.
People: And also with you.
Celebrant: Let us pray.

THE COLLECT FOR THE DAY

God of knowledge and wisdom, we pray to you for all the schools across this country, which are part of the Episcopal Church. We remember them in their variety, in their differences, and in what they share. Give us open doors, open minds, and open hearts that we might accept, learn, and love everything and everyone whom you have given us. Help us to share our lives and what we have, and to learn from all those who are in school with us. We pray in the name of Jesus who opened his arms to all, young and old. Amen.

Please be seated for the Readings
THE FIRST LESSON
A Reading from the First Book of Kings 19:11-12

He said, "Go out and stand on the mountain before the LORD, for the LORD is about to pass by." Now there was a great wind, so strong that it was splitting mountains and breaking rocks in pieces before the LORD, but the LORD was not in the wind; and after the wind an earthquake, but the LORD was not in the earthquake; and after the earthquake a fire, but the LORD was not in the fire; and after the fire a sound of sheer silence.

The Word of the Lord.
People: Thanks be to God.

ANTHEM
Come Unto Me, from Messiah George Frideric Handel, adapted Tom Peterson

Sung by the Choristers & St Nicholas Choristers
Cori Veatch & Mara Veatch, violins

THE SECOND LESSON
A Reading from the Letter of Paul to the Philippians 4:4-9

Rejoice in the Lord always; again I will say, Rejoice. Let your gentleness be known to everyone. The Lord is near. Do not worry about anything, but in everything by prayer and supplication with thanksgiving let your requests be made known to God. And the peace of God, which surpasses all understanding, will guard your hearts and your minds in Christ Jesus.

Finally, beloved, whatever is true, whatever is honorable, whatever is just, whatever is pure, whatever is pleasing, whatever is commendable, if there is any excellence and if there is anything worthy of praise, think about these things. Keep on doing the things that you have learned and received and heard and seen in me, and the God of peace will be with you.

The Word of the Lord.
People: Thanks be to God.

GOSPEL HYMN HYMNAL 482
Lord of all hopefulness Stanzas 1-2 before | 3-4 after

Please stand as you are able.
THE HOLY GOSPEL MATTHEW 11:25-30

The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Matthew.
People: Glory to you, Lord Christ.

At that time Jesus said, "I thank you, Father, Lord of heaven and earth, because you have hidden these things from the wise and the intelligent and have revealed them to infants; yes, Father, for such was your gracious will. All things have been handed over to me by my Father; and no one knows the Son except the Father, and no one knows the Father except the Son and anyone to whom the Son chooses to reveal him. Come to me, all you that are weary and are carrying heavy burdens, and I will give you rest. Take my yoke upon you, and learn from me; for I am gentle and humble in heart, and you will find rest for your souls. For my yoke is easy, and my burden is light."

The Gospel of the Lord.
People: Praise to you, Lord Christ.

Please be seated.
THE SERMON THE REV. DR. PERRY PAULEY, RECTOR

Please stand as you are able.

THE PRAYERS OF THE PEOPLE
LED BY DR. EMMA WHITMAN, HEAD OF SCHOOL

Let us pray for All Saints' Episcopal Church and Day School, for our shared ministries, and for the many lives touched by our mission since our founding. May All Saints' be a lively center for sound learning, new discovery, the pursuit of wisdom and spiritual growth. Grant, O Lord, that those who teach and those who learn may find you to be the source of all truth. Praying together as one, let us say together:
People: Lord of all wisdom, hear our prayer.

Give our teachers a sustaining grace in all that they do. At the end of the day, may they see that you walk with them and call them by name.
People: Lord of all labors, hear our prayer.

Help our children see your hand in all they explore in history and science, reading and math, art and technology, music and singing, worship and prayer. Give them a sense of joy and wonder in all your works.
People: Lord of all creation, hear our prayer.

With grateful hearts, we remember before you today those in our communion of All Saints' who have gone before us to build this school, and we give thanks for those who lead us faithfully today for a stronger tomorrow.
People: Lord of all blessings, hear our prayer.

Make each of us ever mindful of the needs of others, in the church, in the world, and in our classrooms. Give us eyes to see the unseen hurts and ears to hear the unspoken fears, that we might respond with care.
People: Lord of all compassion, hear our prayer.

And as we pray also for the nation and the world,
Help us to honor the knowledge of our Indigenous neighbors, and our neighbors in Haiti, to listen through them to your call To renew the life of the earth, and to live together as your people.
People: Lord of all power, hear our prayer.

Bless all our works begun, continued and ended in your Holy Name, O Lord, reminding us, as we say together the prayer of St. Francis, that we are instruments of your peace:

People:
Lord, make us instruments of your peace.
Where there is hatred, let us sow love;
where there is injury, pardon;
where there is discord, union;
where there is doubt, faith;
where there is despair, hope;
where there is darkness, light;
where there is sadness, joy.
Grant that we may not so much seek to be consoled
as to console; to be understood as to understand;
to be loved as to love.
For it is in giving that we receive;
it is in pardoning that we are pardoned;
and it is in dying that we are born to eternal life. Amen.

Please stand.

THE LORD'S PRAYER BCP 364

People and Celebrant:

Our Father, who art in heaven,
hallowed be thy Name,
thy kingdom come, thy will be done,
on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our trespasses,
as we forgive those who trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom,
and the power, and the glory,
for ever and ever. Amen.

THE BREAKING OF THE BREAD HYMNAL S-155

THE COMMUNION OF THE PEOPLE

We believe that Holy Communion is a preview of that Heavenly Banquet when all of God's children—from all times and all places—will live in unbroken communion with God and one another. This is the central rite of our tradition. All are welcome to come with us to Christ's table and experience the presence of Christ in the bread and wine made holy. You are welcome to receive just the bread or to cross your arms in front of you to receive a blessing from the clergy.

COMMUNION ANTHEMS

Celebrant and People:

Eternal God, heavenly Father,

of your Son our Savior Jesus Christ,
and you have fed us with spiritual food

A Reflection from Deacon Patrice

The writer of the second letter of Peter was talking to a 1st Century Christian Church surrounded by a permissive pagan society. Disciples of Jesus were embarrassed by, and harassed for, the moral strictness of the Jewish-Christian way of living. They wanted very much to fit in and some argued that Christians should be free to live more like those around them. The letter writer tells them, however, to stand strong. Don't get carried away by the times in which you live and the messages from the larger culture about how to act. Don't "lose your own stability".

I read this passage this morning and was captivated. I love this idea of holding our own stability. The idea that we can take accountability for our own spiritual wellness. We are not, in fact, helpless. Furthermore, we have our community of faith, our scriptures, our traditions, and a relationship with God and all of that serves as an anchor to ground us.

But we each, alone, are responsible for choosing daily to hold on to those stabilizing influences when so much around us wants us to go another way. We are surrounded by rampant materialism and political chaos. We live in an age when almost no one trusts basic institutions and AI can tell you anything and get you to believe it. When anything can be true, almost nothing seems to be, and trust between groups is at an all-time low. Our young people see this and despair of owning a home, breathing clean air, a fair and viable vote.

As we enter a challenging election season, and the holidays that send us nose down into the internet for gift ideas, recipes, the right kind of glitter or the cheapest plane tickets, let's try not to get carried away.

One spiritual practice that might help us as this season of distraction approaches is purposefully detaching from all of it once in a while so that we can nurture a spirit of trust that is attached to God alone. Perhaps we name the attachments that have been taking priority over God. Allow others to lead or win for a change. Let go of managing our image or the idea that our possessions are ours. Perhaps we try to trust God with an outcome rather than our own capabilities and maybe honor the freedom of others, refusing to manipulate or control them to get what we want. "All great spirituality is about letting go." says theologian Richard Rohr, and ironically it's in letting go that we find the sacred center. In the midst of change at the speed of light, some things are endlessly and immortally true. We can rest in the assurance that we have what we need to hold on to our own stability in the grace and knowledge of Him who loves us because God is here to meet us. His Spirt to guide us. His love to surround us.
