Sunday, 8:00am The Rev. Dr. Perry Pauley, Celebrant

The Word of God

Please stand as you are able.

THE ACCLAMATION AND COLLECT FOR PURITY

Celebrant: Blessed be God: Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.

People: And blessed be God's kingdom,
now and for ever. Amen.

Celebrant: Almighty God, to you all hearts are open, all desires known, and from you no secrets are hid: Cleanse the thoughts of our hearts by the inspiration of your Holy Spirit, that we may perfectly love you, and worthily magnify your holy Name; through Christ our Lord.

People: Amen.

GLORIA

Celebrant and People:

Glory to God in the highest,
and peace to his people on earth.

Lord God, heavenly King,
almighty God and Father,
we worship you, we give you thanks,
we praise you for your glory.

Lord Jesus Christ, only Son of the Father, Lord God, Lamb of God,
you take away the sin of the world:
have mercy on us;
you are seated at the right hand of the Father:
receive our prayer.

For you alone are the Holy One,
you alone are the Lord,
you alone are the Most High,
Jesus Christ,
with the Holy Spirit,
in the glory of God the Father. Amen.

Celebrant: The Lord be with you.

People: And also with you.

Celebrant: Let us pray.

THE COLLECT FOR THE DAY

O God, you declare your almighty power chiefly in showing mercy and pity: Grant us the fullness of your grace, that we, running to obtain your promises, may become partakers of your heavenly treasure; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever.
Amen.

Please be seated for the Readings

THE FIRST LESSON

A Reading from the First Book of Kings 19:11-12

He said, "Go out and stand on the mountain before the LORD, for the LORD is about to pass by." Now there was a great wind, so strong that it was splitting mountains and breaking rocks in pieces before the LORD, but the LORD was not in the wind; and after the wind an earthquake, but the LORD was not in the earthquake; and after the earthquake a fire, but the LORD was not in the fire; and after the fire a sound of sheer silence.

The Word of the Lord.

People: Thanks be to God.

PSALM 46

St. Helena Psalter

- 1 God is our refuge and strength, *
a very present help in trouble.
- 2 Therefore we will not fear, though the earth be moved,*
and though the mountains be toppled into the depths of the sea;
- 3 Though its waters rage and foam, *
and though the mountains tremble at its tumult.
- 4 The God of hosts is with us; *
the God of Jacob is our stronghold.
- 5 There is a river whose streams make glad the city of God, *
the holy habitation of the Most High.
- 6 God is in the midst of the city;
it shall not be overthrown; *
God shall help it at the break of day.

- 7 The nations make much ado,
and the realms are shaken; *
God has spoken, and the earth shall melt away.
- 8 The God of hosts is with us; *
the God of Jacob is our stronghold.
- 9 Come now and look upon the works of the Most High, *
who does awesome things on earth.
- 10 It is God who makes war to cease in all the world, *
who breaks the bow and shatters the spear, and burns
the shields with fire.
- 11 “Be still, then, and know that I am God; *
I will be exalted among the nations;
I will be exalted in the earth.”
- 12 The God of hosts is with us; *
the God of Jacob is our stronghold.

THE SECOND LESSON

A Reading from the Letter of Paul to the Philippians

4:4-9

Rejoice in the Lord always; again I will say, Rejoice. Let your gentleness be known to everyone. The Lord is near. Do not worry about anything, but in everything by prayer and supplication with thanksgiving let your requests be made known to God. And the peace of God, which surpasses all understanding, will guard your hearts and your minds in Christ Jesus.

Finally, beloved, whatever is true, whatever is honorable, whatever is just, whatever is pure, whatever is pleasing, whatever is commendable, if there is any excellence and if there is anything worthy of praise, think about these things. Keep on doing the things that you have learned and received and heard and seen in me, and the God of peace will be with you.

The Word of the Lord.

People: Thanks be to God.

Please stand as you are able.

THE HOLY GOSPEL

MATTHEW 11:25-30

The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Matthew.

People: Glory to you, Lord Christ.

At that time Jesus said, “I thank you, Father, Lord of heaven and earth, because you have hidden these things from the wise and the intelligent and have revealed them to infants; yes, Father, for such was your gracious will. All things have been handed over to me by my Father; and no one knows the Son except the Father, and no one knows the Father except the Son and anyone to whom the Son chooses to reveal him. Come to me, all you that are weary and are carrying heavy burdens, and I will give you rest. Take my yoke upon you, and learn from me; for I am gentle and humble in heart, and you will find rest for your souls. For my yoke is easy, and my burden is light.”

The Gospel of the Lord.

People: Praise to you, Lord Christ.

Celebrant: All things come of thee, O Lord.

People: And of thine own have we given thee

THE GREAT THANKSGIVING

EUCCHARISTIC PRAYER A

BCP 361

Celebrant: The Lord be with you.

People: And also with you.

Celebrant: Lift up your hearts.

People: We lift them to the Lord.

Celebrant: Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

People: It is right to give our thanks and praise.

SANCTUS

BCP 362

Celebrant and People:

Holy, holy, holy Lord,
God of power and might,
heaven and earth are full of your glory.
Hosanna in the highest.
Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord.
Hosanna in the highest.

Please remain standing or kneel as you are able.

THE PROCLAMATION

BCP 363

Celebrant and People:

Christ has died.

Christ is risen.

Christ will come again.

And now as our Savior Christ has taught us, we are bold to say,

THE LORD'S PRAYER

BCP 364

People and Celebrant:

Our Father, who art in heaven,
hallowed be thy Name,
thy kingdom come, thy will be done,
on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our trespasses,
as we forgive those who trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom,
and the power, and the glory,
for ever and ever. Amen.

THE BREAKING OF THE BREAD

BCP 364

Celebrant: Alleluia. Christ our Passover is sacrificed for us;

People: Therefore let us keep the feast. Alleluia.

Celebrant: The Gifts of God for the People of God.

Take them in remembrance that Christ died for you, and feed on him in your hearts by faith, with thanksgiving.

THE HOLY COMMUNION

We believe that Holy Communion is a preview of that Heavenly Banquet when all of God's children—from all times and all places—will live in unbroken communion with God and one another. This is the central rite of our tradition. All are welcome to come with us to Christ's table and experience the presence of Christ in the bread and wine made holy. You are welcome to receive just the bread or to cross your arms in front of you to receive a blessing from the clergy.

SENDING FORTH EUCCHARISTIC VISITORS

Deacon: In the name of this congregation, I send you forth bearing these holy gifts, that those to whom you go may share with us in the communion of Christ's body and blood.

People: We who are many are one body, because we all share one bread, one cup.

Please stand or kneel as you are able.

POST-COMMUNION PRAYER

BCP 365

Celebrant and People:

Eternal God, heavenly Father,
you have graciously accepted us as living members of your Son our Savior Jesus Christ, and you have fed us with spiritual food in the Sacrament of his Body and Blood.
Send us now into the world in peace,
and grant us strength and courage to love and serve you with gladness and singleness of heart;
through Christ our Lord. Amen.

Please remain standing or kneeling.

A Reflection from Deacon Patrice

The writer of the second letter of Peter was talking to a 1st Century Christian Church surrounded by a permissive pagan society. Disciples of Jesus were embarrassed by, and harassed for, the moral strictness of the Jewish-Christian way of living. They wanted very much to fit in and some argued that Christians should be free to live more like those around them. The letter writer tells them, however, to stand strong. Don't get carried away by the times in which you live and the messages from the larger culture about how to act. Don't "lose your own stability".

I read this passage this morning and was captivated. I love this idea of holding our own stability. The idea that we can take accountability for our own spiritual wellness. We are not, in fact, helpless. Furthermore, we have our community of faith, our scriptures, our traditions, and a relationship with God and all of that serves as an anchor to ground us.

But we each, alone, are responsible for choosing daily to hold on to those stabilizing influences when so much around us wants us to go another way. We are surrounded by rampant materialism and political chaos. We live in an age when almost no one trusts basic institutions and AI can tell you anything and get you to believe it. When anything can be true, almost nothing seems to be, and trust between groups is at an all-time low. Our young people see this and despair of owning a home, breathing clean air, a fair and viable vote.

As we enter a challenging election season, and the holidays that send us nose down into the internet for gift ideas, recipes, the right kind of glitter or the cheapest plane tickets, let's try not to get carried away.

One spiritual practice that might help us as this season of distraction approaches is purposefully detaching from all of it once in a while so that we can nurture a spirit of trust that is attached to God alone. Perhaps we name the attachments that have been taking priority over God. Allow others to lead or win for a change. Let go of managing our image or the idea that our possessions are ours. Perhaps we try to trust God with an outcome rather than our own capabilities and maybe honor the freedom of others, refusing to manipulate or control them to get what we want. "All great spirituality is about letting go." says theologian Richard Rohr, and ironically it's in letting go that we find the sacred center. In the midst of change at the speed of light, some things are endlessly and immortally true. We can rest in the assurance that we have what we need to hold on to our own stability in the grace and knowledge of Him who loves us because God is here to meet us. His Spirit to guide us. His love to surround us.

SUNDAY MORNING PRAYER OFFERINGS AT 9AM

The Rosary Prayer

Sundays at 9AM in St. Mary's Chapel

(Urbano Library this Sunday, September 27)

Led by Ken Mosesian

Praying the Rosary lasts about 20 - 25 minutes, and helps to calm and center your mind through this ancient devotional focused on the Great Mysteries in the life of Jesus Christ. Rosary prayer beads and service booklets are provided.

Saints' community what they hear or wonder about in the appointed lessons—to get some communal input for next week's sermon.

Next Second Sunday: OCTOBER 11

Once a month, we will have an informational session focused on the ministry or the business of the church. This is when you should expect updates from key ministry partners, leadership & more.

Centering Prayer

Sundays at 9AM in the Chapel of the Holy Innocents

Led by Fr. Daniel Collier and Sara Soller

The Practice of Centering Prayer familiarizes us with God's first language—SILENCE. This method of silent prayer serves to prepare one to receive the gifts of God's presence. It is simple yet profound in its effects.

Choral Evensong

Sung Prayers | Candlelight | Incense

Wednesday, September 30 at 7pm

Join us for Choral Evensong commemorating Thérèse of Lisieux, a saint who came to be known in the church as "God's little flower". The 17th-century liturgy will be sung in 21st-century music, featuring some of the most creative, fresh, and beautiful music of the past several years from Sarah MacDonald, Jake Runestad, and David Fawcett.

SUNDAYS for the Kiddos!

Children's Chapel (not this Sunday)

Takes place during the 10:00am service. The kids will be led out of the sanctuary by a cross into the Holy Innocents Chapel. We will have songs and stories and so much more! Led by a different priest each week plus volunteers. Everyone comes back at the Peace for Holy Communion.

Sunday School

9:00am in the Urbano Library normally.

THIS SUNDAY IN THE YOUTH ROOM.

Led by Dawn Trueblood.

The kids will have lots of fun exploring a traditional Godly Play curriculum.

In other words, making Bible stories come alive with props and toys.

Children can sit with their Sunday School class at the 10am service in the Small Saints' Front pew, or they can join their families in the church before going to Children's Chapel.
