The Word of God

Please stand as you are able.

THE ACCLAMATION AND COLLECT FOR PURITY

Celebrant: Blessed be God: Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.
People: And blessed be God's kingdom, now and for ever. Amen.

Celebrant: Almighty God, to you all hearts are open, all desires known, and from you no secrets are hid: Cleanse the thoughts of our hearts by the inspiration of your Holy Spirit, that we may perfectly love you, and worthily magnify your holy Name; through Christ our Lord.

People: Amen.

GLORIA

Celebrant and People:

Glory to God in the highest,
and peace to his people on earth.

Lord God, heavenly King,
almighty God and Father,
we worship you, we give you thanks,
we praise you for your glory.

Lord Jesus Christ, only Son of the Father, Lord God, Lamb of God,
you take away the sin of the world:
have mercy on us;
you are seated at the right hand of the Father:
receive our prayer.

For you alone are the Holy One,
you alone are the Lord,
you alone are the Most High,
Jesus Christ,
with the Holy Spirit,
in the glory of God the Father. Amen.

Celebrant: The Lord be with you.
People: And also with you.
Celebrant: Let us pray.

THE COLLECT FOR THE DAY

Almighty and everlasting God, whose will it is to restore all things in your well-beloved Son, the King of kings and Lord of lords: Mercifully grant that the peoples of the earth, divided and enslaved by sin, may be freed and brought together under his most gracious rule; who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

Please be seated for the Readings

THE FIRST LESSON

A Reading from the Book of Ezekiel 34:11-16, 20-24

Thus says the Lord GOD: I myself will search for my sheep, and will seek them out. As shepherds seek out their flocks when they are among their scattered sheep, so I will seek out my sheep. I will rescue them from all the places to which they have been scattered on a day of clouds and thick darkness. I will bring them out from the peoples and gather them from the countries, and will bring them into their own land; and I will feed them on the mountains of Israel, by the watercourses, and in all the inhabited parts of the land. I will feed them with good pasture, and the mountain heights of Israel shall be their pasture; there they shall lie down in good grazing land, and they shall feed on rich pasture on the mountains of Israel. I myself will be the shepherd of my sheep, and I will make them lie down, says the Lord GOD. I will seek the lost, and I will bring back the strayed, and I will bind up the injured, and I will strengthen the weak, but the fat and the strong I will destroy. I will feed them with justice.

Therefore, thus says the Lord GOD to them: I myself will judge between the fat sheep and the lean sheep. Because you pushed with flank and shoulder, and butted at all the weak animals with your horns until you scattered them far and wide, I will save my flock, and they shall no longer be ravaged; and I will judge between sheep and sheep.

I will set up over them one shepherd, my servant David, and he shall feed them: he shall feed them and be their shepherd. And I, the LORD, will be their God, and my servant David shall be prince among them; I, the LORD, have spoken.

The Word of the Lord.
People: Thanks be to God.

PSALM 95:1-7A St. Helena Psalter

1 Come, let us sing to the Holy One; *
let us shout for joy to the Rock of our salvation.

2 Let us come before God's presence with thanksgiving *
and raise a loud shout with psalms.

3 For you, O God, are a great God; *
you are great above all gods.

4 In your hand are the caverns of the earth, *
and the heights of the hills are yours also.

5 The sea is yours, for you made it, *
and your hands have molded the dry land.

6 Come, let us bow down and bend the knee, *
and kneel before God, our Maker,

7 For you are our God,
and we are the people of your pasture and the sheep
of your hand. ***

THE SECOND LESSON
A Reading from the Letter of Paul to the Ephesians 1:15-23

I have heard of your faith in the Lord Jesus and your love toward all the saints, and for this reason I do not cease to give thanks for you as I remember you in my prayers. I pray that the God of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of glory, may give you a spirit of wisdom and revelation as you come to know him, so that, with the eyes of your heart enlightened, you may know what is the hope to which he has called you, what are the riches of his glorious inheritance among the saints, and what is the immeasurable greatness of his power for us who believe, according to the working of his great power. God put this power to work in Christ when he raised him from the dead and seated him at his right hand in the heavenly places, far above all rule and authority and power and dominion, and above every name that is named, not only in this age but also in the age to come. And he has put all things under his feet and has made him the head over all things for the church, which is his body, the fullness of him who fills all in all.

The Word of the Lord.
People: Thanks be to God.

Please stand as you are able.
THE HOLY GOSPEL MATTHEW 25:31-46

The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Matthew.
People: Glory to you, Lord Christ.

[Jesus said,] "When the Son of Man comes in his glory, and all the angels with him, then he will sit on the throne of his glory. All the nations will be gathered before him, and he will separate people one from another as a shepherd separates the sheep from the goats, and he will put the sheep at his right hand and the goats at the left. Then the king will say to those at his right hand, 'Come, you that are blessed by my Father, inherit the kingdom prepared for you from the foundation of the world; for I was hungry and you gave me food, I was thirsty and you gave me something to drink, I was a stranger and you welcomed me, I was naked and you gave me clothing, I was sick and you took care of me, I was in prison and you visited me.' Then the righteous will answer him, 'Lord, when was it that we saw you hungry and gave you food, or thirsty and gave you something to drink? And when was it that we saw you a stranger and welcomed you, or naked and gave you clothing? And when was it that we saw you sick or in prison and visited you?' And the king will answer them, 'Truly I tell you, just as you did it to one of the least of these who are members of my family you did it to me.' Then he will say to those at his left hand, 'You that are accursed, depart from me into the eternal fire prepared for the devil and his angels; for I was hungry and you gave me no food, I was thirsty and you gave me nothing to drink, I was a stranger and you did not welcome me, naked and you did not give me clothing, sick and in prison and you did not visit me.' Then they also will answer, 'Lord, when was it that we saw you hungry or thirsty or a stranger or naked or sick or in prison, and did not take care of you?' Then he will answer them, 'Truly I tell you, just as you did not do it to one of the least of these, you did not do it to me.' And these will go away into eternal punishment, but the righteous into eternal life."

Our Father, who art in heaven,

thy kingdom come, thy will be done,
on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.

People: Therefore let us keep the feast. Alleluia.

Celebrant: The Gifts of God for the People of God.
Take them in remembrance that Christ died for you, and feed on him in your hearts by faith, with thanksgiving.

THE HOLY COMMUNION

We believe that Holy Communion is a preview of that Heavenly Banquet when all of God's children—from all times and all places—will live in unbroken communion with God and one another. This is the central rite of our tradition. All are welcome to come with us to Christ's table and experience the presence of Christ in the bread and wine made holy. You are welcome to receive just the bread or to cross your arms in front of you to receive a blessing from the clergy.

SENDING FORTH EUCHARISTIC VISITORS

Deacon: In the name of this congregation, I send you forth bearing these holy gifts, that those to whom you go may share with us in the communion of Christ's body and blood.

People: We who are many are one body, because we all share one bread, one cup.

Please stand or kneel as you are able.

POST-COMMUNION PRAYER BCP 365

Celebrant and People:
Eternal God, heavenly Father,
you have graciously accepted us as living members of your Son our Savior Jesus Christ, and you have fed us with spiritual food
in the Sacrament of his Body and Blood.
Send us now into the world in peace,
and grant us strength and courage to love and serve you
with gladness and singleness of heart;
through Christ our Lord. Amen.

Please remain standing or kneeling.

A Reflection from Chaplain Erin

Light one candle for hope, one bright candle for hope.

I think Advent might be my favorite church season. I love the feeling of hopefulness that surrounds us as we prepare for Christmas. One of my favorite Advent songs, which I use with my students often, is this one: Light One Candle. It has four short verses, one for each week. The verses correspond to the candles we light in the church.

Light one candle for peace, one bright candle for peace.

Advent is a time when we feel like peace on earth might be possible. Everyone seems a little kinder, a little warmer to one another. People greet each other, friends and strangers alike, with warm wishes for Christmas. Families gather together in our homes for special "cozy" times. Our hearts feel the relief of God's peace, which passes understanding.

Light one candle for joy, one bright candle for joy.

I feel the joy deep inside myself, and I observe it in my students. We all look forward to Christmas break, when we can spend time with family and friends in a way that we can't in the normal hustle and bustle of our everyday lives. I find myself smiling more, even when I'm just walking along campus or driving on errands. I receive more smiles this time than I do the rest of the year.

Light one candle for hope, one bright candle for hope.

Preparing our hearts and minds for the birth of our savior is so much more than decorating our houses. When we take the time to focus on all the things the Christmas story brings, we can enrich our enjoyment of experiencing God's gift. If you are looking for some simple and inexpensive ways to make Advent more meaningful in your house, please join me on Sunday at 9:00 in the St. Barbara rooms. I hope I will have something that you wand up using with your families. I can promise that you will be surrounded by people who want that for their families, too!

He brings HOPE
to every heart,
He comes, He comes!

UPDATE: PLEDGE MATCH WAS A SUCCESS!

Matching Fund: $135,000
Funds Pledged 11/8 - 11/15: $255,593

Current pledges: $699,911
Current Pledges Received: 155
Goal: $1,100,000
STILL $400,000 TO GO! By December 6

In 2027, we remember that we are one body with many members, and each of us have something we can give. We hope that everyone will consider supporting the Annual Fund at whatever level is comfortable financially, remembering that no pledge is too small and every pledge makes a difference. With that, we recognize that it will be easier for some people to make a gift of their time, a commitment to join the Legacy Circle, or a one-time gift to support our campus renovation this year.

Thank you for all the ways you contribute to All Saints'. You are an important part of this body, and we are truly grateful for you.

It's the most wonderful time of the year!
Time to prepare for the Christmas Pageant!

The Christmas Pageant is Children and Family Ministries gift to All Saints' and our community. It will take place at 3:30 pm on Thursday, December 24th.

We need children between the ages of 4 and 9 to participate in the pageant. No reading or speaking is required. Children will put on a costume, walk down the aisle, stand in their pre-determined spot, and look adorable. I know they already have that last part perfected!

We already have a Mary and a couple of sheep, but we need a Joseph, shepherds, angels, a star and 3 kings (who could be queens).

There will be two opportunities for costume fittings- Sunday, December 13 and 20 at 9:00am in the Urbano Library. There will be craft activities for the children to do while waiting.

There will be a MANDATORY dress rehearsal on Thursday, December 24 at 2:00pm in the sanctuary. Snacks will be provided on the 24th. There is no better way to start your Christmas than by watching the Christmas Pageant.

We hope you will join us!

Advent Lessons & Caroling

Sunday, December 13, 2026 | 5PM

This All Saints' classic event combines the beauty of a classic Lessons & Carols service in the church with the joy of caroling on the patio afterward. We begin with peaceful music and candlelight, move into favorite songs and hot cocoa outside, and conclude by delivering Christmas gifts and caroling cheer to our neighbors across the street at Maryland Gardens assisted living.
