People: And blessed be God's kingdom,
now and for ever. Amen.

Celebrant: Almighty God, to you all hearts are open, all desires known, and from you no secrets are hid: Cleanse the thoughts of our hearts by the inspiration of your Holy Spirit, that we may perfectly love you, and worthily magnify your holy Name; through Christ our Lord.

People: Amen.

GLORIA

HYMNAL S-280

Glory to God in the highest,
and peace to his people on earth.

Lord God, heavenly King, almighty God and Father,

we worship you, we give you thanks, we praise you for your glory.

Lord Jesus Christ, only Son of the Father,

Lord God, Lamb of God,
you take away the sin of the world:

have mercy on us;

you are seated at the right hand of the Father:
receive our prayer.

For you alone are the Holy One,

People: And also with you.

Celebrant: Let us pray.

THE COLLECT FOR THE DAY

Almighty and everlasting God, increase in us the gifts of faith, make us love what you command; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

Please be seated for the Readings

THE FIRST LESSON

A Reading from the Book of Leviticus

19:1-2, 15-18

The LORD spoke to Moses, saying:

Speak to all the congregation of the people of Israel and say to them: You shall be holy, for I the LORD your God am holy.

You shall not render an unjust judgment; you shall not be partial to the poor or defer to the great: with justice you shall judge your neighbor. You shall not go around as a slanderer among your people, and you shall not profit by the blood of your neighbor: I am the LORD.

You shall not hate in your heart anyone of your kin; you shall reprove your neighbor, or you will incur guilt yourself. You shall not take vengeance or bear a grudge against any of your people, but you shall love your neighbor as yourself: I am the LORD.

The Word of the Lord.

People: Thanks be to God.

PSALM 1

St. Helena Psalter

Sung by the Choristers

- 1 Happy are they who have not walked in the counsel of the wicked, *
nor lingered in the way of sinners,
nor sat in the seats of the scornful!
- 2 Their delight is in the law of the Holy One, *
and they meditate on that law day and night.
- 3 They are like trees planted by streams of water, bearing fruit in due season, with leaves that do not wither; *
everything they do shall prosper.

- 4 It is not so with the wicked; *
they are like chaff which the wind blows away.
- 5 Therefore the wicked shall not stand upright when judgment comes * nor the sinner in the council of the righteous;
- 6 For the Holy One knows the way of the righteous, *
but the way of the wicked is doomed.

THE SECOND LESSON

A Reading from the First Letter of Paul to the Thessalonians 2:1-8

You yourselves know, brothers and sisters, that our coming to you was not in vain, but though we had already suffered and been shamefully mistreated at Philippi, as you know, we had courage in our God to declare to you the gospel of God in spite of great opposition. For our appeal does not spring from deceit or impure motives or trickery, but just as we have been approved by God to be entrusted with the message of the gospel, even so we speak, not to please mortals, but to please God who tests our hearts. As you know and as God is our witness, we never came with words of flattery or with a pretext for greed; nor did we seek praise from mortals, whether from you or from others, though we might have made demands as apostles of Christ. But we were gentle among you, like a nurse tenderly caring for her own children. So deeply do we care for you that we are determined to share with you not only the gospel of God but also our own selves, because you have become very dear to us.

The Word of the Lord.

People: Thanks be to God.

GOSPEL HYMN

HYMNAL 581

Where charity and love prevail

Stanzas 1-3 before | 4-6 after

Please stand as you are able.

THE HOLY GOSPEL

MATTHEW 22:34-46

The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Matthew.

People: Glory to you, Lord Christ.

When the Pharisees heard that [Jesus] had silenced the Sadducees, they gathered together, and one of them, a lawyer, asked him a question to test him. "Teacher, which commandment in the law is the greatest?"

He said to him, " 'You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart, and with all your soul, and with all your mind.' This is the greatest and first commandment. And a second is like it: 'You shall love your neighbor as yourself.' On these two commandments hang all the law and the prophets."

Now while the Pharisees were gathered together, Jesus asked them this question: "What do you think of the Messiah? Whose son is he?" They said to him, "The son of David." He said to them, "How is it then that David by the Spirit calls him Lord, saying,

"The Lord said to my Lord,

"Sit at my right hand,
until I put your enemies under your feet"?
If David thus calls him Lord, how can he be his son?" No one was able to give him an answer, nor from that day did anyone dare to ask him any more questions.

The Gospel of the Lord.

THE OFFERTORY ANTHEM

Love Is Little Shaker Hymn (1834), arr. Tom Peterson
Sung by the Choristers & St Nicholas Choristers

Love is little, love is low,
Love will make our spirit grow,
Grow in peace, grow in light,
Love will do the thing that's right.

Love is gentle, love is small,
Love will find the best of all,
Find the peace, find the light,
Love will do the thing that's right.

Love is patient, love is strong,
Love will sing a quiet song,
Sing of peace, sing of light,
Love will do the thing that's right.

Please stand when the offerings are brought forward to the altar.

SANCTUS

HYMNAL S-125

Ho-ly, ho-ly, ho-ly Lord, God of power and might, heaven and earth are full of your glo-ry.

THE PROCLAMATION

BCP 363

Celebrant and People:

Christ has died.

Christ is risen.

Christ will come again.

And now as our Savior Christ has taught us, we are bold to say,

THE LORD'S PRAYER

BCP 364

People and Celebrant:

Our Father, who art in heaven,
hallowed be thy Name,
thy kingdom come, thy will be done,
on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our trespasses,
as we forgive those who trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom,
and the power, and the glory,
for ever and ever. Amen.

THE BREAKING OF THE BREAD

HYMNAL S-155

Al-le-lu-ia, al-le-lu-ia, al-le-lu-ia.
Christ our Pass-over is sac-ri-ficed for us; there-fore let us keep the feast.
Al-le-lu-ia, al-le-lu-ia, al-le-lu-ia.

THE COMMUNION OF THE PEOPLE

We believe that Holy Communion is a preview of that Heavenly Banquet when all of God's children—from all times and all places—will live in unbroken communion with God and one another. This is the central rite of our tradition. All are welcome to come with us to Christ's table and experience the presence of Christ in the bread and wine made holy. You are welcome to receive just the bread or to cross your arms in front of you to receive a blessing from the clergy.

COMMUNION ANTHEMS

Cages

We the Kingdom

What if I got real honest?
What if I took a risk?
What if I opened up my heart
And let you see in?
What if I took my mask off?
Trying to fit in
I don't wanna be a mannequin

What if I let my guard down?
What if I took a breath?
What if I wasn't perfect?
What if I was just a mess?
What if I bled my soul out Givin' all I could give?
I'm so tired of pretending

I'm comin' out of my cages
I'm steppin' down from my stages
I'm sick and tired of faking it
What I wouldn't give to be known
What I wouldn't give to be known

What if I got new armor?
What if I swung my sword?
What if I face my demons
Like I've never done before?
What if I hung my banner?
What if I chose a side?
What if I knew I couldn't lose this time?

I love You, Lord

Oh, Your mercy never fails me

And all my days, I've been held in Your hands

From the moment that I wake up

Until I lay my head

Oh, I will sing of the goodness of God

All my life You have been faithful

All my life You have been so, so good

With every breath that I am able

Oh, I will sing of the goodness of God

I love Your voice

You have led me through the fire

In darkest night You are close like no other

I've known You as a Father

I've known You as a Friend

Oh, I have lived in the goodness of God

Your goodness is running after, it's running after me

Your goodness is running after, it's running after me

With my life laid down, I'm surrendered now

I give You everything

'Cause Your goodness is running after, it's running after me

SENDING FORTH EUCHARISTIC VISITORS

Deacon: In the name of this congregation, I send you forth bearing these holy gifts, that those to whom you go may share with us in the communion of Christ's body and blood.

People: We who are many are one body, because we all share one bread, one cup.

POST-COMMUNION PRAYER

BCP 365

Celebrant and People:

Eternal God, heavenly Father,
you have graciously accepted us as living members of your Son our Savior Jesus Christ, and you have fed us with spiritual food in the Sacrament of his Body and Blood.
Send us now into the world in peace, and grant us strength and courage to love and serve you with gladness and singleness of heart;
through Christ our Lord. Amen.

Please remain standing or kneeling.

The Rosary Prayer

Sundays at 9AM in St. Mary's Chapel

Led by Ken Mosesian

Praying the Rosary lasts about 20 - 25 minutes, and helps to calm and center your mind through this ancient devotional focused on the Great Mysteries in the life of Jesus Christ. Rosary prayer beads and service booklets are provided.

Centering Prayer

Sundays at 9AM in the Chapel of the Holy Innocents

Led by Fr. Daniel Collier and Sara Soller

The Practice of Centering Prayer familiarizes us with God's first language – SILENCE. This method of silent prayer serves to prepare one to receive the gifts of God's presence. It is simple yet profound in its effects.

Coffee and Conversation

Sundays at 9AM in the St. Barbara Rooms

A chance to connect with and get to know the clergy and one another. Each week, the preacher for the following weekend will be part of the conversation to ask the members of the All Saints' community what they hear or wonder about in the appointed lessons—to get some communal input for next week's sermon.

Next Second Sunday: November 8

Once a month, we will have an informational session focused on the ministry or the business of the church. This is when you should expect updates from key ministry partners, leadership & more.

A Reflection from Deacon Patrice

I'm a lucky woman. Every Thursday my two grown sons and my grandsons, ages 2 and 4, come to my house for pancakes, play, and conversation. Last week, my preschool buddy and his uncle were near me on the couch, watching a video about the lives of ants. It's a shockingly merciless existence. Many ants live underground doing just one job. When they get old, they are sent on a death mission to the surface to forage, having a lifespan at that point of about 18 days. The descriptions got so brutal that I looked at my son and said, "Do you think his mother would be ok with this?" They both just shrugged their shoulders and went back to the Mad Max of the ant world, and I was left to think that Nature, so cuddly and pretty on the outside, can be vicious on the inside.

I was reminded of God's lecture to Job at the end of his story of tribulation. "Is it at your command that the eagle mounts up and makes its nest on high? It lives on the rock and makes its home in the fastness of the rocky crag. From there, it spies the prey. It sees it from far away. Its young ones suck up blood, and where the slain are, there it is." And God goes on to describe the rest of his creations, including alligators, lions, and all manner of predators. This beautiful, awful, serene, violent mix is the handiwork of our Maker, completed on the sixth day according to the poetry of Genesis. "God saw everything that he had made, and indeed, it was very good."

The essential lesson of Job is, I think, the lesson of ant society. Suffering is built into the DNA of life on our blue orb and God has never stood in the way of life just doing what it does. We age, we feel pain, and the longer we live, the more our losses pile up. We were never promised the proverbial rose garden. But what is also true is that rose gardens appear in our path from time to time. The serendipity of deep love. The awe of an ocean at sunset. The beauty of literature, and music, and art. The simple serenity of a moment spent watching the clouds drift across a blue sky. These are all gifts from that same Creator God. And the spirit of a gift is kept alive by its constant donation. God gives to us, and we pass that forward to those in our care. And it is in that mutual care that we build the strength to handle the difficult things when they come. As I said, I'm a lucky woman. And I never want to lose sight of my blessings as the poet Czeslaw Milosz wrote, "The smell of winter apples, of hoarfrost, and of linen. There is nothing but gifts on this poor, poor Earth."

ALL SAINTS' One BODY, Many MEMBERS

In 2027, we remember that we are one body with many members, and each of us have something we can give. We hope that everyone will consider supporting the Annual Fund at whatever level is comfortable financially, remembering that no pledge is too small and every pledge makes a difference. With that, we recognize that it will be easier for some people to make a gift of their time, a commitment to join the Legacy Circle, or a one-time gift to support our campus renovation this year.

Thank you for all the ways you contribute to All Saints'. You are an important part of this body, and we are truly grateful for you.
