OPENING ACCLAMATION

Celebrant:
Blessed be God: Father, Son,
and Holy Spirit.

People:
And blessed be God's kingdom,
now and for ever. Amen.

Celebrant: The Lord be with you.

People: And also with you.

Celebrant: Let us pray.

THE COLLECT

Most high, omnipotent, good Lord, grant your people grace to renounce gladly the vanities of this world; that, following the way of blessed Francis, we may, for love of you, delight in your whole creation with perfectness of joy; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

Please be seated for the Lessons.

THE FIRST LESSON

A Reading from the Book of Job

39:1-18

"Do you know when the mountain goats give birth? Do you observe the calving of the deer? Can you number the months that they fulfil, and do you know the time when they give birth, when they crouch to give birth to their offspring, and are delivered of their young? Their young ones become strong, they grow up in the open; they go forth, and do not return to them.

"Who has let the wild ass go free? Who has loosed the bonds of the swift ass, to which I have given the steppe for its home, the salt land for its dwelling-place? It scorns the tumult of the city; it does not hear the shouts of the driver. It ranges the mountains as its pasture, and it searches after every green thing.

"Is the wild ox willing to serve you? Will it spend the night at your crib? Can you tie it in the furrow with ropes, or will it harrow the valleys after you? Will you depend on it because its strength is great, and will you hand over your labour to it? Do you have faith in it that it will return, and bring your grain to your threshing-floor?

"The ostrich's wings flap wildly, though its pinions lack plumage. For it leaves its eggs to the earth, and lets them be warmed on the ground, forgetting that a foot may crush them, and that a wild animal may trample them. It deals cruelly with its young, as if they were not its own; though its labour should be in vain, yet it has no fear; because God has made it forget wisdom, and given it no share in understanding. When it spreads its plumes aloft, it laughs at the horse and its rider."

The Word of the Lord.

People: Thanks be to God.

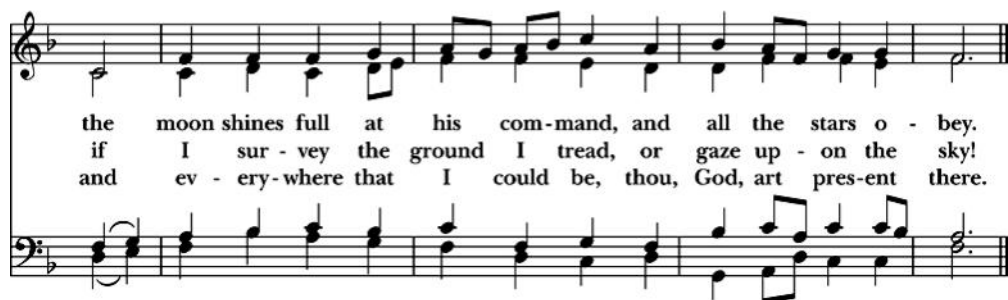

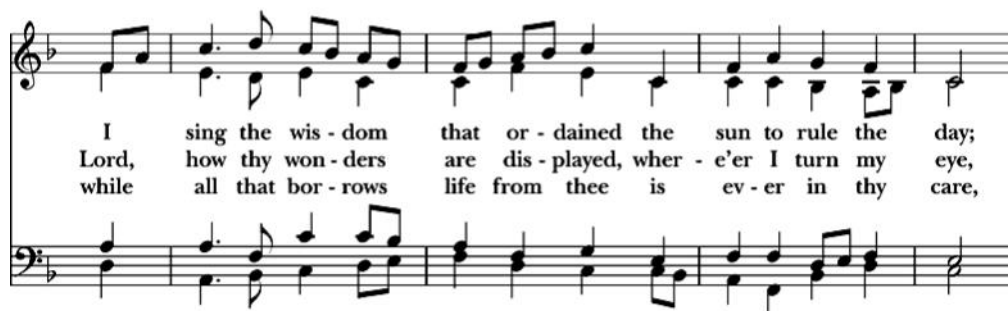

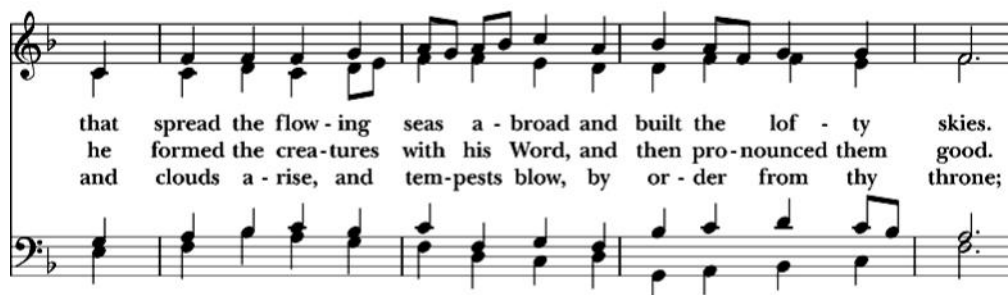

Please stand as you are able.

THE GOSPEL HYMN

Stanzas 1-2 before, 3 after

I sing the almighty power of God

THE HOLY GOSPEL

Luke 12:13-21

The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Luke.

People: Glory to you, Lord Christ.

Someone in the crowd said to Jesus, "Teacher, tell my brother to divide the family inheritance with me." But he said to him, "Friend, who set me to be a judge or arbitrator over you?" And he said to them, "Take care! Be on your guard against all kinds of greed; for one's life does not consist in the abundance of possessions." Then he told them a parable: "The land of a rich man produced abundantly. And he thought to himself, 'What should I do, for I have no place to store my crops?' Then he said, 'I will do this: I will pull down my barns and build larger ones, and there I will store all my grain and my goods. And I will say to my soul, 'Soul, you have ample goods laid up for many years; relax, eat, drink, be merry.' But God said to him, 'You fool! This very night your life is being demanded of you. And the things you have prepared, whose will they be?' So it is with those who store up treasures for themselves but are not rich toward God."

The Gospel of the Lord.

People: Praise to you, Lord Christ.

Please stand.

THE PRAYERS OF THE PEOPLE

Let us pray.

For the artistry of spinning spiders,
the industry of ants,
for all alert animals of field and forest,
for the squirrels that gather,
chipmunks that chatter,
for mice that burrow, and pigs that root,
For all these:

People: We give you thanks, O Lord.

For the water bugs and dolphins,
for all fish and all sea life,
and for enormous whales.
For all these:

People: We give you thanks, O Lord.

For all things that fly,
for pelicans and parakeets,
barn owls and peacocks,
for eagles that soar,
and for birds that nest in eaves and attics.
For all these:

People: We give you thanks, O Lord.

For the creatures that make the desert their home,
for javelinas, hawks, and snakes,
for coyotes, mountain lions, and jack rabbits,
for roadrunners, bobcats and wild horses.
For all these:

People: We give you thanks, O Lord.

For beasts that lumber,
for elephants and hippos,
grizzly bears and tortoises,
porcupines and three-toed sloths,
and for all creatures that remind us not to hurry.
For all these:

People: We give you thanks, O Lord.

For the graceful beasts, the great cats, and for gazelles, for giraffes, and for flamingos, foxes, and fawns.
For all these:

People: We give you thanks, O Lord.

For the animals that work for human good,
for horses, oxen, mules, and beasts of burden,
for dogs, who lead those who cannot see or hear,
track the lost and rescue the stranded.
For all these:

People: We give you thanks, O Lord.

For the animals that share our homes,
for faithful dogs and purring cats,
for all animals that teach us how to love
without judgment,
for rabbits, hamsters, birds, assorted reptiles,
and freshwater fish.
For all these:

People: We give you thanks, O Lord.

For the loving pets we no longer see nor hold,
who served us in faithfulness and trust,

and now live on in our hearts and minds.

For all these:

People: We give you thanks, O Lord.

Celebrant:

Give us the grace, O Lord, to learn from the animal kingdom that you created all things: And bring us to your peaceable kingdom where lion and lamb lie down together.

People: Amen.

THE BLESSING OF THE ANIMALS

Celebrant: The Lord be with you.

People: And also with you.

Celebrant: Let us pray.

Lord, bless and protect these creatures of your creation affection towards us never go unnoticed and let your gentle touch always be upon them. Let their dependence upon us who care for them imperfectly remind us of your perfect care for all you have made. Amen.

A Reflection from Fr. Perry

A Coffee Treat Kind of Thursday

Do you ever have one of those weeks where you get to the end of Tuesday and think to yourself, “Man it’s been a long week.” And then you realize it’s Tuesday.

That’s kind of how this week has been here at All Saints’. And I am not complaining at all—I love what I get to do and the people that I get to be with, but there are weeks when it seems like everything happens all at once. And of course, each thing is excellent and important and worthy of care and attention, but sometimes it’s just a lot.

It started on Sunday with Day School Sunday, a beautiful celebration of the whole All Saints’ community. Our choristers sang beautifully; Dr. Whitman (our Head of School) and Lillian Benjamin (Student Council Co-President) spoke with heart and humor; the faculty, staff, and trustees showed up in force; and many people stayed after service to enjoy a snack and some friendship.

Day School Sunday was just the first of many Day School events this week, though. On Tuesday and Thursday evening, our school administrators unveiled the School’s new strategic plan to parents. And on Thursday morning, we welcomed a batch of prospective parents to campus to tour the school and learn about All Saints’.

In between all these Day School events, Evensong happened on Wednesday evening. It was our first Evensong of the season—and the first Evensong for most of us since singing several services in England in May and June—and it was absolutely beautiful. I am so grateful for Tom and Gavan and our amazing and dedicated choir.

These special events are just part of the story of this week, though. As I write this, here is what is happening in our office. Toby, Cathy, and Will are all working outside in the Close to prepare for our winter lawn (which should be ready by All Saints’ Day). Christina is preparing to mail giving statements for the 4th quarter. Daniel is working on material for his ongoing class on the mystics. Erin, Nanette, and I are preparing for two funerals this weekend. Allison is getting things ready for the Bishop’s visitation in just one month. And this upcoming Sunday will require a lot of extra care and preparation from all of us as we gather in the Day School Pavilion to bless all our pets at 9AM!

So why I am writing to you about all of this? Because rather than choosing to focus on how much is going on and how busy we all feel right now, I am intentionally expressing to our staff how grateful I am for each and every one of them, for their dedication to this place and this community, and for the amount of care and energy they invest in their jobs each and every day. And in the middle of a busy week, it’s good to take a break and celebrate the fact that we are not here to do this work alone. So, we had a coffee treat this morning and the most remarkable thing happened. The mood around the whole place lightened. People came out of their offices and talked and laughed for a moment. We collectively remembered why we are all here—for the love and joy of community—as we enjoyed a moment of community ourselves.

BISHOP JOHN of KENYA will be at All Saints'!
