project write now

Hope Sheds Light and Project Write Now bring you creative writing workshops.

Do you love to write? Or are you curious about what creative writing is all about? Then join PWN as we use fun prompts to inspire us and then share our work (only if you choose). Get your thoughts out and down on the page, create a story or poem, or escape into your own imaginative world. Use this dedicated time and space to write, reflect, and reconnect with what really matters to you. No writing experience necessary.
