

"A documentary film about the power of regenerating water cycles and building a culture of care"

RIPPLES OF REGENERATION

WWW.WATERISLOVEFILM.ORG

A TAMERA MEDIA PRODUCTION by LUDWIG SCHRAMM, ROSA PANNITSCHKA, MARTIN WINIECKI, ISABEL ROSA ZABOU AND EMILY CORALYN BISHOP
FEATURING RAJENDRA SINGH, PHILIP MUNYASIA, RABEA HERZOG, BERND WALTER MULLER, TOKATA IRON EYES, ATI QUIGLA, CHARLES EISENSTEIN, MARTIN WINIECKI

Water is Love

follows a group of young people grappling with the climate crisis while we journey around the world to share inspiring stories of regenerative ecosystem design to create water retention in communities, villages, and regions.

How Water Makes Climate is an original 12-minute animation, portraying the crucial connection between water cycles and the climate.

Wednesday, March 19

Ticket pick up and table displays - 6:30 p.m.
Film start time - 7:00 p.m.

Celebrate 10 years of Halton Hills EcoFilm Fest, inspiring action through films on climate change, sustainability, and nature.

Tickets at the John Elliott Theatre
Box Office or online at:
haltonhills.ca/theatre

Admission:
Adults: $10
Students: $5