

Families with young children are invited to say good-bye to Shabbat and welcome in a new week at

Havdalah on the Beach

Saturday, October 30 • 6:30-7:30 p.m.
at Fisherman's Beach, Humphrey Street, Swampscott

We'll gather around the bonfire for songs, stories, s'mores and a treasure hunt with Rabbi Samantha Safran, Epstein Hillel School's new Director of Jewish Life and Learning!

Bring your ruach (spirit) and bug spray!

Havdalah on the Beach is free and open to all.

Registration is required in the event of inclement weather.

PLEASE REGISTER HERE

For more information, email Lynne Krasker Schultz at Lynne@LappinFoundation.org.

With support from Prizmah's Community Partnership Engagement Grant.

