Amendment No. 72

FACTS

WHAT DOES QBE DO WITH YOUR PERSONAL INFORMATION?

Why?	Financial companies choose how they share your personal information. Federal law gives consumers the right to limit some, but not all sharing. Federal law also requires us to tell you how we collect, share, and protect your personal information. Please read this notice carefully to understand what we do.
What?	The types of personal information we collect and share depend on the product or service you have with us. This information can include: • Social Security number and payment history • Medical information and purchase history • Credit-based insurance scores and insurance claim history When you are no longer our customer, we continue to share your information as described in this notice.
How?	All financial companies need to share customers' personal information to run their everyday business. In the section below, we list the reasons financial companies can share their customers' personal information; the reasons QBE chooses to share; and whether you can limit this sharing.

Reasons we can share your personal information	Does QBE share?	Can you limit this sharing?

What we do

How does QBE protect my personal information?	To protect your personal information from unauthorized access and use, we use security measures that comply with federal law. These measures include computer safeguards and secured files and buildings. We restrict access to personal information about you to staff on a "need to know" basis.
How does QBE collect my personal information?	We collect your personal information, for example, when you: • Apply for insurance or pay insurance premiums • File an insurance claim or provide employment information • Give us your contact information We also collect your personal information from others, such as credit bureaus, affiliates, or other companies.
Why can't I limit all sharing?	Federal law gives you the right to limit only: • sharing for affiliates' everyday business purposes—information about your creditworthiness • affiliates from using your information to market to you • sharing for nonaffiliates to market to you State laws and individual companies may give you additional rights to limit sharing. See below for more on your rights under state law.

Definitions

Affiliates	Companies related by common ownership or control. They can be financial and nonfinancial companies. • Our affiliates include the financial companies listed in the "Who is providing this notice?" section.
Nonaffiliates	Companies not related by common ownership or control. They can be financial and nonfinancial companies. • QBE does not share with nonaffiliates so they can market to you.
