...More than a DJ

Kevy Kev has been most fortunate to promote, Emcee, DJ and host concerts, stage shows & club events on the World stage, affording him the opportunity to rub elbows and network with the who's who in the Reggae, Soca & Urban/Contemporary industries, too numerous to mention. Kev's passion for Caribbean music, while being influenced by so many different genres, has molded his ability to have a unique style of delivery, having performed in different Islands in the Caribbean, USA, Canada, and Europe. Kev's musical influences include Calypso, Reggae, Jazz, R&B/Hip-Hop and even Country music. He has over 30 years of experience in the field, including being an owner of a nightclub in Texas in the 90's. His social media platforms currently include over 50,000 engaged users. Whether performing in front of a corporate audience in New York, or entertaining the masses on a float/truck during St. Kitts carnival, he brings the best from the Caribbean coupled with international appeal, conveyed with the most professional delivery! When not on-stage, he outfits studios, clubs, houses of worship and private clients with the most cutting edge technology in pro audio, video, lighting & installation via his position as a Manager of Business Development at Guitar Center's Pro Division in Orlando, FL.
