An educational and entertaining portrayal of Eastern Woodlands Indian Tribes demonstrating the Indian lifestyle in the 1800s. Enjoy a static display of Period correct Encampments as well as Staged Performances!!

Demonstrator Displays

Demonstrators will establish period correct activities to show how Native Americans made tools, musical instruments, primitive weapons, and other necessities of life.

Native Made Items Raffle

The Greater Valley Area Chamber of Commerce will attain native made items to be raffled off. Everyone receives a raffle ticket when they gain entry as a part of the cost of admission.

Native American Dancing

Dancers from several Indian Tribes and Nations will demonstrate a wide verity of traditional native dances and the more modern Pow Wow style dances in full regalia. As the dancers perform, the Emcee will describe the customs behind many of the dances as well as the regalia worn by the dancers.

Social Dance

The general public is invited to celebrate with native dancers in the circle. Dancers dance with and assist those who desire to learn the steps. There is no right or wrong in a social dance and many styles are Mixed in the circle. Dancers with skill levels ranging from nationally ranked to first timer's enjoy each others fellowship in a celebration on native culture.
