

51st Annual COPE Dinner

Thursday, October 21, 2021

VIP Virtual Reception(s) — 6:00 PM

50th Annual COPE Dinner Broadcast Program — 7:00 PM

Never before has Labor had the opportunity we have today. Not in any of our lifetimes has there been a political environment this favorable to working people and our right to organize!

It's time to seize the day!

Cope 2021 will celebrate new leadership, new direction, new inspiration! The evening will open with two Invitation Only Sessions for guests with VIP Passes. VIP Session #1 is a chance to virtually mingle with Tim Ryan, U.S.

Representative for Ohio's 13th Congressional District. VIP Session #2 features a chance to chat with Clayola Brown, AFL-CIO Director - Civil, Human and Women's Rights. Then the General Session opens with a special greeting from the newly elected leadership of the AFL-CIO followed by a Cincinnati Labor Council Rising Stars, Young Leaders perspective. The, Aftab Pureval, Hamilton County Clerk of Courts, and Cincinnati AFL-CIO Endorsed Candidate for Mayor, City of Cincinnati will introduce the first of two featured speakers, Tim Ryan, U.S. Representative for Ohio's 13th Congressional District and AFL-CIO Endorsed Candidate for U.S. Senate, then Andre Washington, Vice Chair-Ohio Democratic Party will introduce our second featured speaker, Clayola Brown, AFL-CIO Director - Civil, Human and Women's Rights.

Unfortunately, because of the ongoing COVID-19 pandemic and the new threat posed by the Delta Variant, we are once again unable to hold our traditional, in-person dinner gathering. Instead, the Cincinnati AFL-CIO will be holding a private COPE live broadcast/online event. So, once more from the comfort of your own living room, please join us and the Cincinnati AFL-CIO Labor Council family and friends to celebrate 51 years of Solidarity and Unity in the greater Cincinnati Labor movement.
