National, State, Regional, County and City Labor and Elected Leaders to Discuss "Reopening America" – An Online Event

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE — May 5, 2020 — Cincinnati, OH — Friday, May 8, 11:00am, Labor Leaders and National, State, Regional, County and City Elected Leaders will meet in an online panel discussion covering how best to "Reopen America." This not-to-miss event being produced by the Cincinnati AFL-CIO and hosted by Doug Bolton from CincinnatiCares.com, features a panel of representatives from the U.S. Senate and House, Ohio House and Senate, Hamilton County, City of Cincinnati, and Labor Leaders representing Healthcare, Public Safety, Building Trades/Construction, Food Workers/Retail, Transportation, Public Sector, Education and US Postal Service sectors. (A list of the Elected and Labor Leaders for this panel is located on page 2 of this release.)

At the heart of this discussion is "Safety First: Working People's Plan for Reopening Our Economy." Every day, health care workers, transit workers, meatpacking workers, first responders, grocery workers, utility workers, letter carriers, construction workers, doormen, retail workers, child protective service workers, factory workers, solid waste workers, corrections officers, janitors and other workers are being exposed to the coronavirus in U.S. workplaces. Hundreds of thousands of workers have been infected and thousands have died. Putting worker safety first is the first step in any viable plan to save lives, defeat the coronavirus and revive the economy, as the AFL-CIO has further laid out in America's Five Economic Essentials. These important points will drive our discussion.
