

Snap-Ed is Coming In October!

Supplemental Nutrition Assistance Program Education

The Center for Independent Living Options, Inc. (CILO)

invites Kentucky SNAP recipients and people with limited resources to participate in this free nutrition program where you can learn basic skills necessary to make Healthy Choices for Every Body. Snap-Ed is an educational program of Kentucky Cooperative Extension led by instructor Angela Baldauff, Nutrition Education Program Assistant with the University of Kentucky.

Where: Life Learning Center located at 20 West 18th Street, Covington, KY 41011
(Building is accessible and located on bus line)

When: Classes are on Monday from 1:30PM to 3:00PM on the following dates:

October 1, October 15, October 22 & October 29; November 12, November 19 & November 26

To RSVP contact: Beth Crenshaw Independent Living/Peer Support Specialist
P: 513.241.2600 Ext 114 or E: bcrenshaw@cilo.net

Participants will receive FREE kitchen items to help with preparing healthy foods such as cutting boards, paring knives, measuring cups & spoons, and colanders PLUS samples of food with cooking demonstrations!