

College admissions officers will visit our campus throughout the year to meet our students, here are our first two.

9/9/19 Thomas Aquinas College of California and New England

9/26/19 Knox College in Galesburg, IL

High School students will be able to talk to admissions representatives during lunch period. We look forward to having many more colleges visit campus this year.