

Diocesan Day of Prayer & Fasting: Prayer Resources

Thursday, March 26, 2020

While we offer set prayers, feel free to say your own prayers in the morning, at noon and in the evening.

Morning Prayers, 9 a.m.

Lord Jesus Christ,
you taught us to love our neighbour, and to care for those in need as if we were caring for you.
In this time of anxiety, give us strength to comfort the fearful, to tend the sick, and to assure the isolated of our love, and your love, for your name's sake.

Amen

\(Church of England\)

God of compassion, be close to those who are ill, afraid or in isolation.
In their loneliness, be their consolation; in their anxiety, be their hope;
in their darkness, be their light; through him who suffered alone on the cross, but reigns with you in glory,
Jesus Christ our Lord.

Amen.

\(Church of England\)

Gracious God,
give skill, sympathy and resilience to all who are caring for the sick, and your wisdom to those searching for a cure.
Strengthen them with your Spirit, that through their work many will be restored to health;

through Jesus Christ our Lord.

Amen.

(Church of England)

Jesus, during your ministry on Earth you showed your power and caring by healing people of all ages and stations of life from physical, mental and spiritual ailments. Be present now to people who need Your loving touch. May they feel your power of healing through the care of doctors and nurses.

Take away the fear, anxiety and feelings of isolation from people receiving treatment or under quarantine. Give them a sense of purpose in pursuing health and protecting others from exposure to the disease. Protect their families and friends and bring peace to all who love them.

Amen.

(World Vision)

Lord Jesus Christ, Son of the Living God, have mercy on me, a sinner.

(The Jesus Prayer)

A prayer with a child

Dear God, (name of person) is ill.

I'm sad because I miss them. They must be feeling miserable and lonely, as well. Please be close to them. Please be with the people who are looking after them. Please help them to get better and to know that you love them. Amen.

(Adapted from a Church of England prayer)

Compassionate God, you know the pain of your people, we pray that your healing waters will flow all over the earth. We hold before you those who are suffering because of COVID-19; those without homes or jobs; those with disease of body, mind or spirit; those who hold onto vengeful, hurtful feeling. We pray especially for (list names). In the coming week, strengthen us to reach out to those in need. Amen.

For our scorched and blackened earth

Forgive us

For the scandal of billions wasted in war

Forgive us

For our arms makers and arms dealers

Forgive us

For our Caesars and Herods

Forgive us

For the violence that is rooted in our hearts

Forgive us

For the times we turn others into enemies

Forgive us

Deliver us, O God

Guide our feet into the way of peace

Hear our prayer.

Grant us peace.

From the arrogance of power

Deliver us

From the myth of redemptive violence

From the seduction of wealth

Deliver us

From the addiction of control

We will not conform to the patterns of this world

Let us be transformed by the renewing of our minds

With the help of God's grace

Let us resist evil wherever we find it

With the waging of war

We will not comply

With the legalization of murder

We will not comply

With the slaughter of innocents

We will not comply

With laws that betray human life

We will not comply

With the destruction of community

We will not comply

With the pointing finger and malicious talk

We will not comply

With the idea that happiness must be purchased

We will not comply

With the ravaging of the earth

We will not comply

With principalities and powers that oppress

We will not comply

With the destruction of peoples

We will not comply

With the raping of women

We will not comply

With governments that kill

We will not comply

With the theology of empire

We will not comply

With the business of militarism

We will not comply

With the hoarding of riches

We will not comply

With the dissemination of fear

We will not comply

Today we pledge our ultimate allegiance... to the Kingdom of God

We pledge allegiance

To a peace that is not like Rome's

We pledge allegiance

To the Gospel of enemy love

We pledge allegiance

To the Kingdom of the poor and broken

We pledge allegiance

To a King that loves his enemies so much he died for them

We pledge allegiance

To the least of these, with whom Christ dwells

We pledge allegiance

To the transnational Church that transcends the artificial borders of nations

We pledge allegiance

To the refugee of Nazareth

We pledge allegiance

To the homeless rabbi who had no place to lay his head

We pledge allegiance

To the cross rather than the sword

We pledge allegiance

To the banner of love above any flag

We pledge allegiance

To the one who rules with a towel rather than an iron fist

We pledge allegiance

To the one who rides a donkey rather than a war-horse

We pledge allegiance

To the revolution that sets both oppressed and oppressors free

We pledge allegiance

To the Way that leads to life

We pledge allegiance

To the Slaughtered Lamb

We pledge allegiance

And together we proclaim his praises, from the margins of the empire to the centres of wealth and power

Long Live the Slaughtered Lamb

Long Live the Slaughtered Lamb

Long Live the Slaughtered Lamb

Evening Prayers, 7 p.m.

We invite you to light a candle in your home as you pray.

We are not people of fear:

we are people of courage.

We are not people who protect our own safety:

we are people who protect our neighbours' safety.

We are not people of greed:

we are people of generosity.

We are your people God, giving and loving,

wherever we are,

whatever it costs

For as long as it takes wherever you call us.

Amen.

(Church of England)

Spirit of compassion, fill our hearts and give us peace. Give us strength to care for those around us even as we may be physically separated. Deepen our sense of compassion even in the midst of our anxiety. Keep us mindful of the many other needs in the world – conflicts, refugees, poverty, and many other illnesses besides the coronavirus – and all other concerns we name before you know. We pray in Jesus' name.

Amen.

(Evangelical Lutheran Church in Canada)

Be present, O merciful God, and protect us through the silent hours of this night, so that we who are wearied by the chances and chances of this feeling world may rest upon our eternal changelessness;
Through Jesus Christ our Lord.

Amen.

(Church of England compline)

Before the ending of the day,
Creator of the world, we pray
That you, with steadfast love, would keep Your watch around us while we sleep.

From evil dreams defend our sight,
From fears and terrors of the night;
Tread underfoot our deadly foe
That we no sinful thought may know.

O Father, that we ask be done
Through Jesus Christ, your only Son;
And Holy Spirit, by whose breath
Our souls are raised to life from death.

Amen.

(Church of England compline)
