

UNITED WAY BLACKHAWK REGION

DAY OF CARING SPONSORSHIP

COST

$750

WHEN/WHERE

Wednesday, September 13, 2023
Various project sites throughout the Blackhawk Region

PURPOSE

United Way's 2023 Day of Caring will inspire hundreds of volunteers and dozens of cooperate teams to conduct one-day service projects for local nonprofit organizations. This annual event highlights the power of volunteerism, a major component of United Way's call to action: GIVE, ADVOCATE, VOLUNTEER.

BENEFIT

Day of Caring volunteers complete much-needed projects for nonprofit organizations that may not have the financial or human capital to otherwise complete these projects. The event also brings awareness to the valuable work and impact of dozens of local nonprofits.

SPONSORSHIP VALUE

- Company logo displayed on an estimated 500+ t-shirts worn by volunteers while working at more than 100 projects throughout the Blackhawk Region.
- Company recognition before an audience of 350+ at the Day of Caring & Campaign Kickoff breakfast on Sept. 13. Details coming soon...
- Company recognition on UWBR's social media platforms and newsletter with 15,000 subscribers.
