

Review of Key Talking Points

Floridians have made it abundantly clear that they don't want political districts drawn with partisan intent. Amendments 5 & 6 passed overwhelmingly in 2010.

Just say NO to mid-cycle redistricting.

Floridians want their elected leaders to focus on the kitchen table issues affecting our daily lives, not trying to rig maps for partisan gain.

Mid-cycle redistricting ignores Floridians' real needs.

As insurance premiums continue to hit record highs, families continue to be priced out of their homes, and local governments struggle to keep up with infrastructure demands, taxpayer dollars should be utilized to address real economic problems, not spent on partisan gerrymandering.

The Florida State Constitution states that maps must not be drawn with the intent to favor or disfavor a political party or incumbent.

This is an unconstitutional power grab.

Redrawing Congressional districts in the middle of the decade on partisan grounds, without new Census data, defies the will of the people and undermines the State Constitution.

There is no new Census data to justify a redistricting process.

Mid-cycle redistricting sets a dangerous precedent and is bad no matter which party does it.

In a democracy, voters choose the politicians. Politicians do not choose the voters.
